

CEDAR GROVE NEWS

February 13

It is all very well to assume that international chaos has little, if any, effect on the calm, well-ordered life of Cedar Grove but it isn't so. New York was no harder hit than we when the Beatles landed. The difference was only proportionate. Patience, parents! This too will pass.

The church was well filled, the evening most entertaining and the offerings generous when Helen and Maurice Hamill showed their slides last Friday. Helen's commentary was a satisfactory accompaniment to Maurice's visual record of a wonderful trip.

NOTES ABOUT NEIGHBOURS
Colleen and Lola Reesor visited Colin over the weekend to participate in the fun and frolic of Macdonald College (Que.)

Winter Carnival. A wonderful time, of course.

Archie Little was in and out of hospital. All very fast and favourable.

While the highschoolers are preparing for Heartbeat, the Valentine Dance on Friday night, the public schoolers are all set for a three school skating party on Thursday afternoon. This year Hillside, Cedar Grove and Locust Hill join forces for fun.

Dates To Remember
Feb. 20th. Mother's Club will be held at Gert Shoudy's. Sim Reesor will show some of his slides at this meeting.

Feb. 21st (weather permitting) Toggoganing Party at Millroy's Hill and afterwards at the Walton's.

UCW NEWS
The regular meeting of Zion UCW was held at the church on Feb. 4th. Mrs. Little opened the meeting and reported on the York Presbytery meeting at Stouffville. Miss M. Hamill was in charge of the programme on The Christian in Church and Community. The members filled out a questionnaire after which a panel consisting of Mrs. Isobel Whittaker, M. McCowan, Evelyn Whittamore and G. Shoudy gave their views on the questions asked. Miss Mabel Reesor led the worship service.

Gormley News
