LEMONVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nauta and family have returned home after an extended holiday in Europe. They spent a week in Holland visiting with Mr. Nauta's parents. The spring crocus was in bloom and beautiful weather prevailed. The family then travelled through Germany, down to Italy and visited with relatives in Switzerland. A most enjoyable trip with fair weather.

We are sorry to report Mr. W. Baker was confined to hospital again Saturday. Severe pain in his right leg and foot caused him great discomfort for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wells were guests with Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Schell and Mr. and Mrs. M. Redshaw also enjoyed the evening.

Mrs. H. Hirsch attended an afternoon class in the Lutheran Church, Carleton St., Toronto, Sunday afternoon. Mr. G. Otto of Ballantrae lectured on "Why

We Have Art!
The school held the annual Valentine's skating party at Smiths' Friday afternoon. The junior room skated until recess time, the seniors after that.

On Thursday the Lemonville senior hockey team defeated the Dixon Hill team 10-0.

The senior class choir offered two lovely selections at the church service Sunday evening under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Sanders.

Miss Galye Burton celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday by entertaining a number of her school friends to a theatre party in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steele spent Sunday with Mrs. J. Gibbins.

Mr. D. K. Atkinson of Winnipeg spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Atkinson. Mrs. C. Wells called Sunday afternoon to visit him.

A break for a television commercial may not always be a break for the long-suffering viewer.

BROWNIES

Monday evening District Commissioner Mrs. J. Gundy, assisted by Brown Owl Mrs. G. Hardie and Tawny Owl Mrs. S. Johnston, called Lisa Station and Wendy Hart into the 1st Gormley Browne Pack.

After the enrolment, Sgt. Bill Shearn of the Markham Township Police force visited the Brownies and gave a talk about "Safety on the Highways and in the Homes", along with simple hints on first aid, and how useful a Brownie can be in case of emergency. The highlight of the talk was looking at the handcuffs, and talking about some things a policeman does in line of duty.

After Sgt. Shearn had departed, Robert Johnston, Barbara Miller and Joyce Gayman served tea as hostesses for the evening.

F. W. Woolworth Co. Ltd., Toronto — Executive Office Appointments

A. B. MUNRO
The F. W. Woolworth Co. Limited, of Canada, announces the following executive appointments. Mr. Alan B. Munro has been elected Vice-President and Managing Director of the Company and Director of the parent Company, as of January 1, 1964. In his new post, Mr. Munro will have jurisdiction over Woolworth's operation throughout the Dominion, making his headquarters in Toronto. He succeeds Russell D. Campbell, Vice-President and Managing Director who retired December 31, 1963. Mr. Munro, a native of Toronto, began with Woolworth's forty years ago, as a trainee. Following his training, he managed stores in Ontario, Quebec and British Columbia. He was later made District Manager in the Winnipeg area.

Moving up in the Company, Mr. Munro was transferred to the Executive Office in Toronto and appointed Supervisor of Store Organization and Personnel. He later became Merchandise Supervisor, before being named Assistant Regional Manager.

Mr. H. J. McPhail has been appointed Assistant General Manager. Prior to his present appointment, Mr. McPhail served as Supervisor of Buying and was directly responsible for all the Company merchandise purchasing. Since joining the Company in 1924, he has managed stores in Walkerville, Toronto, Regina, and Vancouver, later was promoted to District Manager of Calgary and Ottawa Districts. Before assuming the position of Supervisor of Buying, he was Director of Personnel and in this capacity he introduced the first Employee Training Programme for the Company.

Mr. F. L. Gooderham has been appointed Supervisor of Buying. Prior to his appointment, Mr. Gooderham served as Director of Merchandise and Sales. He has managed stores in Montreal and Vancouver and was promoted to District Manager in 1950. In 1953 he took over the responsibility of opening new and enlarged stores. In 1955 moving up in the Company, he was transferred to the Executive Office in Toronto where he served as Sales Manager up to his present appointment.

Mr. R. G. Bridle has been appointed Director of Merchandise and Sales. Mr. Bridle joined the Company in 1929. He was promoted to Store Manager in 1941, District Manager in 1951 and Store Opener in 1956. In 1958 he was appointed Merchandise Buyer of candy and horticulture. From 1962 he has been associated with the Sales Department and now takes over the full responsibility as Director of Merchandising and Sales Promotion.

and Mrs. Elmer Burnett, presented the state of officers for 1964. The new executive is as follows: Pres. Mrs. Eugene Lemon; Vice Pres. Mrs. D. Benson; Sec. Mrs. Cliff Lemon; Treas. Mrs. Oliver Harding. The monthly fund sent to Miss Mary Neal for mission work in Sault Ste. Marie was increased as of last year and Mrs. D. Burnett is the missionary treasurer. Mrs. E. Baker was hostess.

Mr. Robt. Johnston is confined to bed following a heart attack.

Sympathy is extended to the families connected with the fatal accident of Master Steven Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Gray, Franklin.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard L. Shantz, Janet and Gwenne of St. Catharines were Friday visitors at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Tranmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Croff and family of Beamsville were at church on Sunday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frazzelle. Mr. and Mrs. John Clark and family of the Seaman's Mission Toronto, were here for the service Sunday morning. Mr. Clark delivered the sermon. Mr. Johansson of Aurora was the soloist.

(Feb. 20)
Mrs. W. A. Fockler is slowly recuperating from a nasty fall she received last Thursday. The young people went bowling last Friday evening and were later entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Lemon, Stouffville. Miss Mary Miller of Stouffville was a weekend guest of Miss Dianne Storry. Mr. Arthur Storry returned home on Wednesday following his recent eye operation at Toronto General Hospital.
