Calls Concern

Within recent weeks, a number of false alarm telephone calls have been received and the practice is causing officials of the Stouffville Fire Brigade some concern.

The majority of calls are taken by Wm. Sanders at his east-end garage and the pranksters are causing him much inconvenience. It is believed to be the work of children.

Will Ask $500 Deposit For-Moving Buildings

Whitchurch Township Council has requested Road Supt. Davis to make a decision as to whether or not permission may be granted to move a house 9.30 a.m.-Holy Communion some distance over township roads. The owner said the rea son the matter was delayed until the present half-load restrictions are on, was that the application had been sent to the Toronto & York Roads Commission in er-

Council members said that in the past much damage had been done during such operations with the breaking of mail boxes and other roadside fixtures and they asked that in future a deposit of $200 be obtained before any permit was issued.

Decision On Oak Ridges Water, Mar.

The long-discussed domestic water system for Oak Ridges will get final word from the Ontario Municipal Board on March 18th as to whether or not it may proceed. The costs have continued to climb on the project with the addition of various extra charges.

In the original scheme it was expected the system would serve about a hundred households. This number has now climbed to 125 to 150. A letter is being sent to the ratepayers involved, outlining the progress made and requesting some indication in their desires in the matter.

DEATH

Mrs. J. McDowell Mrs. Jemima (Mima) McDowell, wife of William McDowell of Leaside, died at the East Gen. eral Hospital on Tuesday, Feb. 25, 1964. Besides her husband she is survived by Helen (Mrs. W.
