

Markham Landmark To Be Removed

The Franklin House, a Main Street landmark in Markham since 1881 will be removed this spring to make way for a new I.G.A. Supermarket on the site. At one time the building was considered to be one of the finest hotels in the district. On April 9, 10 and 11, the Markham Kiwanis Club will take over the premises to promote an antique show and sale. Antique dealers from the Markham area and points throughout Southern Ontario will be represented. The public is invited. —Staff Photo.

WEDDING

PARKER—HEISE

Bethesda United Church was decorated with baskets of red roses and white mums for the wedding of Diane Louise Heise daughter of Mrs. Lorne Heise, Stouffville and Robert Alan Parker of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Parker of Woodstock, on Saturday, March 21st at 2 p.m.

Rev. George Davison was the officiating clergyman.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. Henry Heise, the bride wore a floor length white bengaline taffeta with bodice of chantilly lace, seed pearls and sequins. The skirt had appliques of lace, pearls and sequins and she wore a crown of seed pearls and carried yellow tulle roses and white mums.

Mrs. Reg. Bagshaw of Windsor, Matron of Honour wore green chiffon over taffeta and bridesmaids Miss Carolyn Russell of West Hill and Miss Brenda Parker of Woodstock chose yellow chiffon over taffeta. Their headpieces were bows with circular veils. They carried yellow and white mums.

The soloist Mrs. James Oldham was accompanied by Mrs. James Masters of Grand Valley, when she sang "O Perfect Love" and the "Wedding Prayer."

The Best Man was Mr. Robert Dale Stewart of Woodstock with Mr. Edward Law of Unionville and Mr. Fred Wilks of Woodstock as ushers.

The reception was held in Stouffville Youth Centre. The bride's mother chose a mid blue suit, blue flowered hat, white gloves and black accessories, and the groom's mother chose the same, both wearing corsages of yellow sweetheart roses.

For a honeymoon spent in Northern United States, the bride chose a pink costume for travelling. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

Guests at the wedding were
