Dickson's Hill Anniversary

A new beauty salon opened on Main St. W. opposite O'Brien Ave. on the new Alsop building on Tuesday June 2nd. It is known as Donna-Lee's Beauty Salon. There are three dryers and every modern convenience for the customers. You are invited to come in and look around the new establishment, where you will be most welcome. Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dart, 17th Ave., Markham.

Walk away your tensions, that's the advice of nearly a thousand physicians who were asked what they prescribed for patients who complained of tensions. Swimming, golf, bowling and gardening were also mentioned.

The entrance to the cemetery was nearly 100 years old when it was replaced by the new one. The new building was erected on a separate plot outside of the cemetery. Since the time of building in 1951 the debt incurred has been gradually reduced each year until it is expected that on Anniversary Sunday it will be completely wiped off. Those who have worshipped at Dickson's Hill in the past years and all friends of the church are invited to attend the Anniversary Services next Sunday.

Rev. Grant Sloss present pastor of the Dickson's Hill and Markham U.M. Churches also announces that on Friday, June 5th at 8 p.m. a Special Youth Rally will be held in the Markham Church. This service will be led by Rev. Wes Aarum, Director of Toronto Youth for Christ. Mr. Chuck Ohman, talented soloist and trumpeter from Detroit will be present to play and sing. Mr. Aarum will be speaking. Everyone, young and old is invited to this Rally on Friday evening.
