Great Chapter York Deanery

The Reverend Shem Karoro, of Uganda will be the special guest of the fall meeting of York Deanery Great Chapter at St. Gabriels, Richmond Hill on Tuesday, October 13, 1964. This was announced today by the newly appointed Rural Dean, the Reverend John E. Speers, B. Th., Trinity Church, Aurora.

The Reverend Karoro is in his early twenties and is in Canada in the Anglican Congress scheme of mutual interdependence. His Diocese is Ankole Kagezi and he is now helping out at Trinity East and attending Wycliffe College.

Great Chapter is comprised of all men of all Parishes of York Deanery. They meet at 6:30 p.m. for Evensong at the Host Church and thereafter the ladies of the host church serve dinner for a tariff of $1.75. The Reverend Shem will be interviewed by the Reverend Speers on his impression of the Canadian Church and the meaning of the Congress to him and his Diocese. Questions will be permitted from the floor.

Contrary to statistics in some other church activities, the men turn out in great force for these meetings. It is soul stirring to hear a hundred or so male voices boom out the Evensong service, and this, and the friendly Parish rivalry as well as good meals and programs, have made Great Chapter well worth the time.

This is the first meeting for the new Executive, composed of The Rural Dean; Chairman, Paul Mingay, Markham; Vice Chairman, Geoffrey Thorpe, Newmarket and Secretary Alf Hill, Unionville.
