Neighbourhood Notes

Christmas is really in the air this week. Homes glow with lights, Christmas cards swell the mails, some ambitious neighbours eager with anticipation even have their parcels wrapped — there's nothing like it!

This week-end will be the big one for Christmas activities in the community.

On Friday Evening, Dec. 18 at Brown's Corners United Church the Sunday School children will present a pageant and other entertainment at their annual Christmas concert. The Junior Choir will sing, and CGIT will present a skit, and Santa Claus will be on hand.

On Saturday, Dec. 19, the H.C. Group will hold a Winter Wonderland Dance at Buttonville W.I. Hall. Anyone wishing further information should call Mirvin Gohn, 297-1708.

On Christmas Sunday morning, at Brown's Corners Church there will be music by the junior and senior choirs, a service of baptism, and a special family candle-lighting ceremony, with Rev. Dr. A. F. Binnington in charge. Christmas Sunday Night at 7:30 p.m., Victoria Square United Church, the annual CGIT and EXPLORERS Candle-light Vesper service.

The hue and cry of municipal elections is over for another year and Buttonville neighbour Charles Hooper is reeve for '65. Wednesday of last week the Associated Tube Industries Ltd. entertained approximately 135 at a party for their staff and members of their families. The dinner was served at Buttonville W.I. Hall by members of the U.C.W., and entertainment and a Christmas tree followed.

Mrs. Charles Hooper was called to Midland to the home of her daughter Dorothy, Mrs. Bill Robb, last Wednesday. Bill's father was very ill in hospital, and Mrs. Hooper stayed with the children.

Mr. Douglas Hood is able to go out again for short trips around the community.

Mrs. Ross Hord is in Toronto East General Hospital following major surgery last week. She was reported making progress. Last week Mrs. S. J. English presented choir members at Brown's Corners Church with a collection of poems she has written over the years, and chuckles have been rippling through the community ever since.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Steffer and their family visited relatives at Galt last Sunday.

Another milestone was passed recently with the sale of Rodick Brothers farm on Don Mills Rd. south of #7 Hwy. Earlier this fall, the Joe Robinson farm on Bayview Ave was sold, and these were the last remaining owner operated stable farms in Markham Twp. south of #7 between Yonge Street and the 5th Concession. Neither of these families will move immediately. Euche Series Ends Next Begins Jan. 8/65

The last game of the autumn euche series at the W.I. Hall was played Friday evening, and Mrs. Gordon Risebrough of Willowdale won the prize turkey with a score of 462 for the five games. Runners-up were Mrs. Richard Barber, Mrs. A. Trimble and Mr. Robert Cartwright. Winners for the final game were Mrs. A. Kinke, Mrs. Fred Shadlock, Miss E. Trimble, Mrs. Weidmark, Messrs. Newt Burr, Peter Trimble, Ed Powell and Jim Tooley.

YORK COUNTY LIBERALS HEAR ANDREW THOMPSON

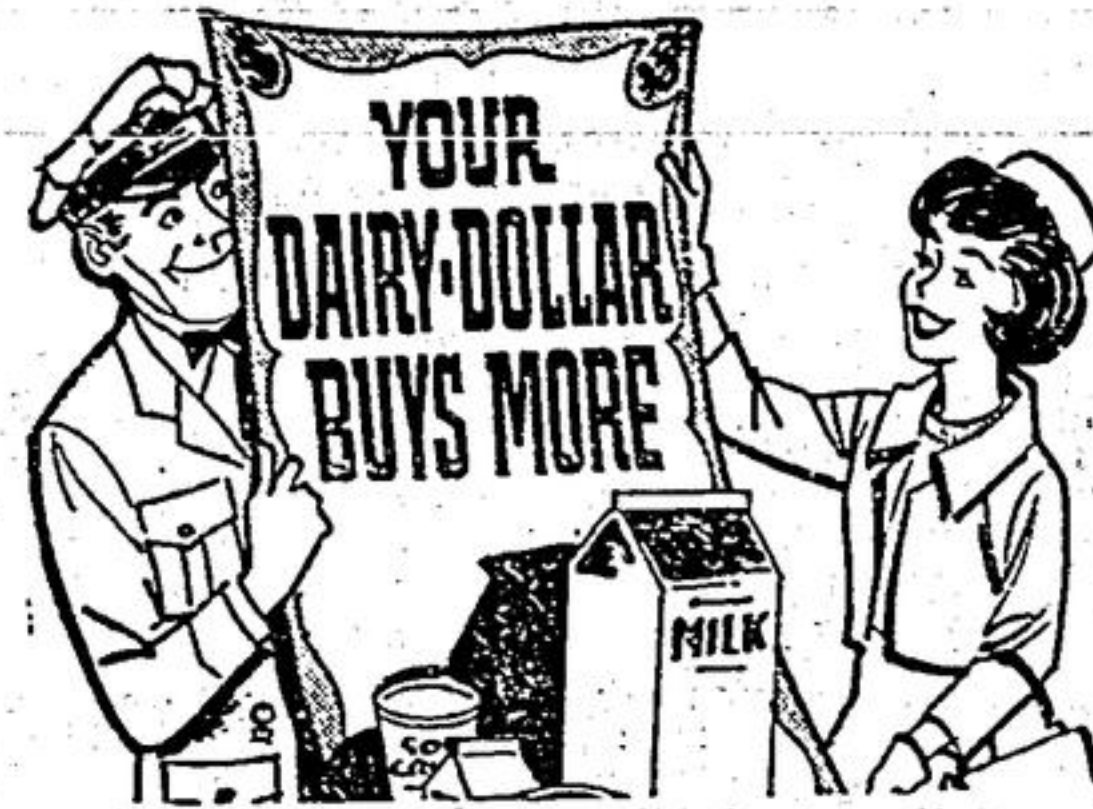

Andrew Thompson, new leader of the Ontario Liberal party was guest speaker Thursday evening of last week, when members of Women's Liberal Associations in York County held their annual dinner at the Richmond Inn, Richmond Hill.

Mr. Thompson spoke briefly on the problems confronting Ontario today, and expressed confidence that the next election would bring a Liberal majority.

Mr. John Addison, Federal member for York North, also brought greetings to the group from Ottawa. Head table guests included Mr. Thompson, Mr. Addison, Donald Plaxton, Provincial Liberal candidate for York North, and Mrs. Plaxton; Mrs. Grace Norton, pres. of the Stouffville Women's Liberal Ass'n.; Mrs. Grace Lewis, Ontario pres.; Mrs. B. Baillie, Vaughan Twp. pres.; Mrs. George Kelly, pres. of the Markham Twp. Ass'n., and Mrs. F. W. Plaxton, pres. of York North, who chaired the event.

Among Markham Twp. guests were Mr. Ewart Stiver, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rumble, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Deacon, Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gould, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig.
