Neighbourhood Notes

Congratulations to Raymond Gohn, son of Sue and Donald Gohn, who received the nicest Christmas gift a little boy could have — a baby brother — born at the Scarborough General Hospital, Wednesday, Dec. 16, 1964. Mr. and Mrs. R. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. I. Gohn are happy to welcome a new grandchild. Don and Sue brought the baby home last Sunday.

Chickenpox is abroad in the neighbourhood, and the flu bug is attacking whole families for a day or two at a time. Last Sunday the Hooper family was stricken — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper, Joan and George Hooper and their children — but it was Christmas Sunday, the Junior choir sang at church, and Joan was there to lead them, sick as she was.

Mrs. Russell Tooley returned recently from a visit with friends in Cleveland and found a welcome home party in her honour hosted by Mrs. James Tooley, Mrs. F. W. Baker and Mrs. Will Clark. There was eucyre and a midnight supper.

Alf Shenfield spent a day in Buffalo recently, attending a Buffers' gathering.

There were season's greetings from White Horse, Yukon, in the mail last week. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McAllister who were the Rodicks' guests for much of last winter are staying in the land of the midnight sun this year.

While they were in the east they visited relatives and old friends, and Mr. McAllister did a remarkable job of public relations for the Yukon as well. He gave talks and showed slides at 55 gatherings, visiting service clubs, lodges, schools and church groups. He also handed out literature at the World Ploughing match, the Royal Winter Fair and the Sportman's show, where he talked with many people about the land of his adoption. Last summer he spent some time at the Tourist Information Booth in Whitehorse and met many interesting visitors to the north.

W.I. Party Honours Members

There was a Christmas party with a difference for W.I. member at Buttonville W.I. Hall recently, when Mrs. Jean Cook and her work committee entertained the hard working social committee.

It was also a time to pay special tribute to the secretary of the group, Mrs. James Rodick, for her faithful service; and it was the occasion for presenting Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson and Mrs. Adam Brown with life memberships to commemorate 25 years of active participation.

The hall was decked for the occasion with evergreen and Christmas lights, and a delicious buffet supper was served.

Mrs. S. J. English played carols, and accompanied Mrs. Stephenson in a solo; there was a prize for the holder of a lucky chair and cup; and there was Court Whist. Mrs. Russell Boyington made the presentation speech for the life memberships to Mrs. Stephenson and Mrs. Brown, while Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Rodick did the honours.

Later in the evening Mrs. Charles Hooper, a Buttonville W.I. member, and 1965 President of East York Dist., paid fine tribute to Mrs. James Rodick for her years of service and presented her with two pieces of lug-

Red & Green FOR CHRISTMAS

Time goes on and on, yet red and green continue as the most popular colors of Christmas. One can find no legendary or historical reason, and many assume that it has something to do with the green holly with its red berries. On the other hand, it just may be that these bright colors are so popular because they are the brightest of shades.

More and more other colors, particularly dark blue, white or silver and red gold are being used for holiday decorations, it's true. Yet, they have a long way to go before they threaten the popularity of red and green.

No Insurance, Fined $50

Ronald N. Phinney was allowed two months to pay a $50 fine for driving without insurance on his car.

Phinney was involved in a two-vehicle accident on 14th Ave. in Markham township October 31st.

The accused, who was injured in the accident, requested more time to pay the fine after Magistrate Russell Pearce allowed two weeks. The Magistrate asked if he could handle the payment in that time, and Phinney expressed doubt. He extended payment for two months.

Gladioli corms that were lifted this fall and are now in wooden trays can be cleaned anytime within the next few weeks. When this is completed they should be dusted with 5 per cent DDT to destroy thrips.

Joy Fuller, Mrs. Clayton Jones and Mrs. S. J. English. And then Santa Claus came, and gifts were distributed. Baptismal Service Christmas Sunday

The Christmas service at Brown's Corners United Church was a particularly beautiful one this year, with two baptisms and a family candle-lighting service. The Junior and Senior choirs sang Christmas music. Rev. Dr. A. F. Binnington presided at the christening of Laurie Anne, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carr; and Stephen Mark, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Stewart and their family lit candles with Dr. Binnington, to Love, Truth, Joy and Peace.

Later Santa arrived in the person of Mrs. Stephenson, and there was an exchange of Christmas gifts.

There was tea and Christmas cake to top off the evening. Mrs. Hooper thanked the Work Committee for their hospitality, and Mrs. Leaf replied. Mrs. George Kelly, pres., was mistress of ceremonies with Mrs. Cook.

Sunday School Christmas Tree

Last Friday Brown's Corners Sunday school children presented their annual Christmas Tree concert. The age old story of the Nativity was beautifully presented in the church auditorium and later the whole assemblage retired to the Christian Education room for more secular numbers, and the coming of Santa.

The pageant was directed by Mrs. Wilfred Turner; Miss Joy Fuller was in charge of music, and Mrs. Robert Hood supervised wardrobe. The cast included: 1 and 2 narrator, Jeff Coleman, David Turner; Mary, Debbie Hood; Joseph, Rodney Venus; 1, 2 and 3 shepherd, Paul Stiffler, David Hooper, Paul Craigie; 1, 2 and 3 wiseman, Danny Tooley, Gary Copp, Brian Stiver; Herod, John Stewart; Poor Children, Linda Jones, Janice Evans, Linda Peitser, Dawn Hood, Linda Hincks, Sonji Woodward. MaryLyn Snider was the angel. All the children and the congregation joined in the carols, and Mrs. Clayton Jones sang "I Wonder as I Wander" at the conclusion.

Downstairs there follow a variety program.

Mrs. Svans' and Mrs. Stiver's tiny children sang "Away in a manger"; 4-year-old Kathy Snider sang a song; there was a skit by junior children with Mrs. Steffler and Mrs. John Buchanan assisting; the Junior Choir sang several songs and the CCIT presented "The Three Little Pigs"; Gayle Jones did a ballet dance, and music was provided by Miss
