Gormley News

(Mrs. C. Milsted)
 As I looked for a New Year's poem to start this week's column I came across this one that I feel is so suitable:
 My Prayer as the New Year Begins—
 O Lord, as on the threshold of another year I stand and turn the pages in my book of golden memories, I thank Thee, Lord, for all the lovely things therein I see, for all the sweet forget-me-nots of yesterday.
 The scented woodland paths in memory once again I see where violets and primroses and buttercups smile at me; the lichen and the ivy clinging to the garden wall and the perfume of the roses, I thank Thee, Lord for all the wondrous things that life has given, for friends, both new and old, whose love has stood the test of years, whose hearts are hearts of gold.
 For laughter, smiles and gladness, yes, and sympathizing tears, for those who shared the griefs and joys of all the by-gone years; for shadows o'er the sunlit path; for pain that stayed awhile; for tender hands of loved ones who made glad that weary mile.
 This so completely expresses my thoughts at this tragic week of my life. My husband's sudden home-going and my daughter's accident has cast such a gloom on the whole community but words will never express my thanks for everything that has been done. The hundreds who called at the house and who attended the service paid a
