Pay Tribute Prior to the opening faceoff, a two minute silence was observed as tribute to 20 year old Bob Campbell, star forward of the Uxbridge "Chicks", who was fatally injured in a car accident Monday night.

Still out of the lineup for the "Clippers" is rugged denfenseman Wayne Keeler. Keeler is still nursing a sore arm as a result of a car accident two weeks ago. He is expected to skate at the next "Clipper" practice and will likely see action during the playoffs.

Tuesday's game had no effect on the standings. "Clippers" have secured second position in the Junior "D" teams and will B. McGinty .....33:51 meet Uxbridge in the first game of a seven-game playoff series: next Tuesday at the arena.

Stouffville "Clippers" had to come from behind twice Tuesday night to defeat the Woodville "Maroons" 5-4 in the final home game of the season at the arena.

Bob Wagg, who replaced "Chuck" Doyle between the pipes in the last period, held off the hungry 'Maroons' when they pulled their goalie in favour of an extra attacker.

The "Clippers" had great chances to score in the first period, but were down 1-0 before Pete Reesor finally broke the lice: Earlier, Greg Dunnett had the puck behind goalie Barry Snoden, but it took a weird hop and rolled out again without crossing the red line. Reesor, prior to scoring his goal, hit the post with Snodden a mile out of position.

McLean BACK IN ACTION

Barry McLean, super-star forward for the Stouffville with 41 points.

Here are the statistics:

Player C A Pts game absence. McLean, who was bodied heavily in Bobcayge on Jan. 15th. sat out the last two "Clipper" games nursing a bruised shoulder. However, Tuesday he was right back in the swing of things notching a goal and adding two assists.

McLean is seven points up on game remaining (to-night) it is likely McLean will retain first spot.

Barb Hill Nets Three Against Orono Team

The young line of Barb. Hill, Sharon Renaud and Wendy Burrows continues looking good for the Stouffville girl's hockey team and on Friday night they teamed up for three of the club's seven goals. They downed Orono 7-1.

Captain Hill hit the target on each of the tallies. Penny Meeking picked up an assist on her second marker. Irene Bryson who appears equally at home on the forward line or defence, potted a pair. Carol Jagger also fired two. Jo-Anne Comerson was the lone marksman for the visitors. Judy Powell turned in a fine effort in the Orono net, especially in the second period when she gloved a direct drive from the stick of Irene Bryson. Wendy Partner was Orono's best front-line performer although she didn't figure in the scoring. She was blocked twice by goaltender, Betty-Ann Carruthers in the middle frame.
