Full Gospel Centre Celebrates First Anniversary

One year ago, on Feb. 26, The Tribune reported that a Full Gospel Centre was to open in Markham. On Mar. 1 a convention will be held to celebrate the special anniversary services all day on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 27 and 28. The ladies of the Centre will serve free meals between services for out of town visitors. The Convention will begin when JAVA HARVEST, a feature-length, sound and colour documentary of the South Pacific's most unusual spiritual awakening is shown on Sat. Feb. 27 in the Markham Shopping Centre Auditorium at 2 p.m.

Vividly presented in the film is the scenic beauty and enchantment of this intriguing island with its teeming cities, cluttered outdoor markets, muddy rice paddies and customs which are centuries behind our modern world.

Contrasting sharply with these scenes are those of the T. L. Osborn evangelistic campaign which in just a few weeks drew hundreds of thousands of Javanese to the crusade grounds. This was the first time an open air campaign was permitted in Java for over 350 years.

Missionary-Evangelist T. L. Osborn, producer and narrator of the film, has conducted over 70 mass evangelistic campaigns around the world. His ability to make profound truths easily understood has given him unusual acceptance everywhere.

The film will be presented by Rev. Lloyd Faulkner, a co-operating evangelist with the T. L. Osborn Evangelistic Association.
