Today is March 1st; Sun is shining, the first song sparrow is singing and a fly is basking on the snow on my window sill, can spring be far behind?

All this is a far cry from last week's stormy days, when most neighbours were captive behind drifted driveways and treacherous roads. Thursday morning most school buses got through, but Friday all except Unionville and Mount Joy schools were closed in TSA No. 2 and the children had their second unexpected holiday in two weeks.

Mrs. Morrison Sellar returned home Monday of this week, after spending ten days with Jack and Mary Rodick at the farm.

Mrs. English is making good progress at St. John's Convalescent Home, and expects to be home again (with help) in a couple of weeks.

Peter Tully was at Gravenhurst with the "Forest Rangers" cast recently and his mother, Mrs. Patrick Tully, and small sister Amanda Jane accompanied him.

Friday, March 5, the local World Day of Prayer service will be held at Headford Church, Leslie Street at 2 p.m. Mrs. Loren Guild will be the speaker.
