Mrs. Merlin Grove at Markham U.M. Church

This coming Sunday, April 4 will mark the beginning of a "Month of Missions" emphasis in the Markham United Missionary Church. In the morning service at 11:00 the Pastor, Rev. Grant Sloss will be speaking on the subject "Token Involvement or Total Involvement?" Mr. Sloss with his wife and family spent two terms in Nigeria with the United Missionary Society.

The evening service at 7:30 will be the Women's Missionary Society semi-annual "Thank Offering" Service. Guest speaker in this service is Mrs. Merlin Grove. Mrs. Grove spent 2 years in Somalia with her husband before his death in July 1962. She will be telling of the continued progress of missionary endeavour in Somalia until the present time.

The total Denominational Women's Missionary Society projects this year will amount to $52,000.00. This includes the support of a number of missionaries, the sponsoring of Pastors Conferences in Nigeria, the support of a mission station in India and many other smaller projects. The local W.M.S. will help to support this with their offering on Sunday evening.

On Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock a "Family Fellowship" dinner will be held in the church basement. Following this at 8 o'clock a tape recording from Miss Iris Schlitt in India will be played. Miss Schlitt is supported by the Markham Church. Greetings will be brought from the Eldon Boettger family who will be leaving for Nigeria in July. A special feature of this evening's activities will be the showing of a 30 minute coloured sound film entitled "The Harvester."

Stouffville Players Busy Smoothing Out Parts For Comedy Production

The production staff for Doctor in the House have been extremely busy during the past weeks, and none more so than John Foulds, who, along with Frank Mellon has constructed some very impressive lighting arrangements on a limited budget. He has also been busy with Jack Mumford, Floyd Marshall and Mr. Otto Sr. on the design and construction of the set. John has been working against two deadlines, the dress rehearsal on April 7th, and the arrival of a new baby in his family, expected any day now!

This is the first production which Jack Mumford has managed for the Players and he stressed how very impressed he is with the amount of work done by the members, and how very helpful the local merchants and tradesmen have been. The Legion have allowed the Players to use their hall for many rehearsals and this is a kindness which is greatly appreciated.

Mae Foord, another behind-the-scenes worker has been busy with ticket sales and selling advertising for the program; while George Ford has given a great deal of help and advice with stage decor. Molly Mumford has been begging and borrowing props, but the skull and skeleton which the play called for proved to be too much for her and they have been supplied by Jerome DeLaurier.

Since the play is contemporary, costumes have not been a problem, but what work has been needed has been done by Mae Foord. Other behind-the-scenes workers have been Bill Dedlow, who is responsible for publicity and advertising, Arthur Dixon, House Manager, and Edith Sanders, who is in charge of all ticket sales. Tickets are available through any member of the group, or at Henriety Hardware. The price is one dollar, a very modest price indeed for a theater ticket in 1965.

Mr. & Mrs. Stanley Watson Celebrate 45th Anniversary

There was a warm circle of children, grandchildren, relatives and close friends present last Saturday, when Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Watson, of R. R. 2, Markham celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary at a dinner party held at the Victoria Square Community Centre.

It was on March 27, 1920 that Ennice Forsythe and Stanley Watson were married at the Forsythe family home in Agincourt, Rev. D. L. Gordon of old Knox Presbyterian Church officiating. Both were from Scarboro Township families; the bride was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Forsythe, and the groom's parents were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson.

The years in between have been meaningful and successful for the Watsons. They hold a respected place in community life and the Holstein dairy farm which is run by Mr. Watson and sons Stuart and Trevor is widely known for its excellence.

Moved in 1952, in 1952, the family moved from their Scarboro farm to a north of Markham. Mr. Ward served as Councillor of Markham Township and he has been active in church and agricultural affairs throughout the County, and the father of five married in a member of the Child of Township School Area No. 2, Markham, in its first year of operation. He is also a director of the Markham Fair Board. Trevor is the secretary of the York County Hockey Club, and of the East York Plowing Match. He has also been a lay representative on both East and York Presbyteries of the United Church, Toronto Conference.

A daughter, Mildred, is now Mrs. Wm. Snowball of Markham and the busy mother of seven active children. Her sister, Marian, Mrs. Robert Hamilton, died suddenly in 1961, but her two sons, Gary and Clive, were present at Saturday's party.

Two Pastors Present Rev. A. L. Borland of Stouffville United Church and Rev. G. A. Rector of Knott, Markham were present and expressed the wish that "life will grow richer and more blessed" for them as the years go on.

Mr. Wallace MacMillan of Orillia toasted the bride and Harold White of Port Credit entertained with his banjo. There were songs by Mrs. Elmer Wilson of Etobicoke, who also spoke affectionately of Mrs. Watson as the teacher at Cedar Creek School when she was a little girl. To top the festivities there were beautiful coloured pictures of Western Canada shown by Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Mumberson. Mr. Mumberson served on Township Council with Mr. Watson for several years.

Mrs. Watson's sister who was her bridesmaid, Mrs. G. Rowe of Hickson, Ontario, was present, as was Mr. Watson's brother and groomsmen, Mr. Fred Watson of Agincourt with his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Watson of Whitby were also among the guests.

This Week's Thought:
Men have become intoxicated with the great idea of one visible and united church and fall to realize that any such idea must be limited by truth and balance by the conditions laid down in Holy Scripture.
