Ninety-two Ladies At 60th W. I. Anniversary

Ninety-two ladies representing 8 neighbouring Women's Institutes gathered at the Legion Hall on Wednesday afternoon, May 12th to celebrate the 60th Anniversary of Stouffville Women's Institute. Mrs. Bruce Davidson, the president, conducted the program. Past presidents, life members and secretaries were introduced by the president and each received a rose. Mrs. Chas. Hooper, the District President brought greetings from York East District W. I. Rev. Douglas Davis, guest speaker reminisced in his own inimitable manner much to the delight of the ladies present. Mrs. Wm. Duxbury added to the enjoyment of the program with the rendition of two beautiful vocal solos. The sixty-year history of the Stouffville W. I. was read by Mrs. Truman Baxter and reviewed many pleasant memories. A suitably inscribed anniversary cake flanked by blue and gold candles and flowers was cut by Miss Bertha Winn who joined the Women's Institute in 1917. The singing of "Blest be the Tie that Binds" brought the meeting to a close. Refreshments were served and an hour of good fellowship concluded a most enjoyable afternoon. The beautiful corsages worn by the President, Mrs. Davidson and the secretary, Mrs. Williamson were the personal gifts of Mrs. Jake Hoover.

Horticultural Meeting

The Horticultural meeting held on Monday night in the Presbyterian Church basement was well attended and there was a wonderful display of Spring flowers for the spring show. These were judged by Miss Eva Hoover. Later, she gave some tips on "How to exhibit your flowers." Music for the evening was supplied by Miss Beverley Bell in vocal solos and accordion solos. Pictures were shown by Mr. and Mrs. J. Keith of Ringwood, who had motored to the West Coast and returned home by train and plane. They also showed pictures taken locally. The following were the winners in the flower show:
