Neighbourhood Notes
Paul Jordan has been nursing a badly broken wrist since he fell in a pole-vaulting event at Thornhill Secondary School. Paul has assisted Wayne Patterson in Sigma-C work at Brown's Corners United Church this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper were in Windsor last week, where Mr. Hooper attended the National Convention of Mayors and Municipalities Convention.

Mrs. Irene Atkinson is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hood. Mrs. Atkinson lives in Nipigon now, and returned here last week with her son Murray who is at the University of Toronto for a two-weeks extension course.

It is good to have Lynn Arnot with us in the community again. Through her Eyerson years Lynn lived in Toronto, but now she is home.

The CNR by-pass, which crosses this neighbourhood south of John Street, was opened officially by Premier John Robarts on Monday of last week at Maple. Since last November, when the first trains used these rails, the number running each day has increased considerably. Beware of level crossings in the township.

Mrs. Olga Denby is at her own home again, after her recent illness, and last Thursday evening she attended a shower for her niece, Donna Denby, at Brown's Corners United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. George Oakes returned recently from Winnipeg, where they attended the funeral of Mr. Oakes' sister, Mrs. Beth Laing. Mrs. Laing will be remembered in this community as guest soloist at Brown's Corners Church during her summer visits here.

It is that time of year for music teachers and pupils, and on Saturday of last week Debby Hood tried her grade 1 theory at the Royal Conservatory of Music. This week several former pupils of Mrs. S. J. English, who are now being tutored by Mrs. Clayton Jones and Mrs. Donald Reesor, will be examined in music and theory. We wish them well.

50th and 1st Anniversaries
It was a double celebration this year for Brown's Corners United Church CGIT and Explorers groups. 1965 is the 50th anniversary of C.G.I.T. groups and it also marks the first year of activity for the Brown's Corners group. Formerly girls in this church were members of the Victoria Sq. charge organizations.

There were approximately 75 mothers and daughters present at the banquet, and the Christian Education room was appropriately decorated in blue and gold for this special occasion.

Among the head table guests were Mrs. G. Fritz, CGIT leader Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Binnington, and CGIT girls and their mothers. Dr. Binnington led in Grace and during dinner Miss Margaret Patterson, explorer leader, conducted a singsong.

Susan Stewart, toast mistress proposed the toast to the Queen Debby Hood proposed the toast to the church, with Dr. Binnington replying; other toasts included one "to our guests" by Mrs. G. Fritz; and "to our Mothers" by Jill Curtis, with Mrs. Robert Hood replying.

Secretaries reports were given by Mary Lynn Snider for CGIT and Linda Jones for the Explorers group.

A feature of the evening was the graduation ceremony for five Explorers who will enter CGIT in the autumn — they were Darlene Stephenson, Sharon Buchanan, Linda Jones, Irene Craigie and Rona Palmer. Special awards were made to Eileen Robson and Debbie Hood for perfect CGIT attendance.

At the conclusion of the evening Mrs. A. Armstrong gave courtesies, and Mrs. A. W. Miller of Brown's Corners U.C.W. whose members had catered for the event, was presented with a hydrangea plant in appreciation.

Last week both CGIT and Explorers concluded their meetings for the season; Explorers met last Saturday for a picnic and hike at the home of their leaders, Margaret and Patricia Patterson.

UCW Happy Timers
Mrs. Richard Tribbling entertained last week for members of Brown's Corners "Happy Timers."

Mrs. Lawson Mumberson was the guest speaker, and had many interesting things to say about Public Relations — concluding with the best of all

Mrs. C. Milsted

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Reg. McMullen in the death of Reg's father, Mr. Ezra McMullen of Toronto. Mr. McMullen farmed on the farm where his son Reg now is, for years. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon at the Heise Hill Church.

Mr. S. N. Doner is a patient in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill, where he had surgery on Friday morning.

Mrs. N. Johnston had major surgery at York Central Hospital on Thursday, and is now progressing favourably.

Mrs. Gordon Cullen is also a patient in York Central Hosp.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoover and children of New Dundee spent the weekend with relatives here.

Mr. Robt. Kunz spent last week in York County Hospital at Newmarket.

Miss Brenda Ash was quite sick with measles.

Mrs. Wem of Birmingham, England, is spending several weeks with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. Varley.

People are busy gardening and the men are putting in long hours getting their seedling rules "Do unto others as you would be done by."

The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Bill Wilson and Mrs. Tribbling; business discussion included arrangements for a Bake Sale on the lawn of Buttonville W.I. Community Hall on Friday, June 18. The group will hold only one such sale this year, and it is hoped that everyone will cooperate.

During the evening there was group singing and lively discussion on the question of Public Relations continued into the refreshment hour.

W.I. Hears Miss F. Eadie Wednesday of last week, the W.I. members entertained guests from Elmgrove and Unionville W.I.'s, and Brown's Corners Church U.C.W. when the speaker was Miss Florence Eadie, whose work is with new W.I. groups in the Northwest Territories and the Yukon.

Miss Eadie, who was introduced by Mrs. Garnet Francy, had an interesting story to tell of women in the north, and her done. Charleen Milsted is progressing well. She is now able to be on crutches a short time each day, and on Wednesday of this week she started having therapy on her knee at York Central Hospital.

Mr. Harry Kruse spent the weekend at his cottage near Farry Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stacey and family also went to their cottage near Penetang.

Congratulations to Mrs. D. Fennell who celebrated her 92nd birthday on May 26. Mrs. Fennell was presented with a plant at the Sewing Circle at the home of Miss Arvilla Forrester on Tuesday afternoon.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Varley were Mr. and Mrs. Middleton, Mrs. Madge Wem of Birmingham, England, and Mr. and Mrs. Clutterbuck of Warwick, Rhode Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brillinger, Walter, Jean and Vera had dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Amos Baker of Vaughan.

A miscellaneous shower was held on Friday night by the Heise Hill people for Miss Carol Jarvis and Mr. Jim Robinson at the Victoria Square hall.

talk was illustrated by many beautiful pictures which she had taken on her travels from Yellowstone and Whitehorse, Yukon, to Aklavik and Cambridge Bay in the Territories.

Mrs. Lloyd Baker read an essay by Edna Jacques on the squirrelish qualities of women, and Mrs. George Hooper sang two beautiful solos.

Mrs. George Kelly presided, and during business a Mystery Tour was announced for June 17 (be at the W.I. Hall at 1:15 p.m. with purse), and plans are in the making for a picnic on July 21 — 9 a.m. at Hall, to the Blue Mountains and Craigleith districts.

Courtesies were tendered by Mrs. John Wilkins and hostesses Mrs. Elmora Hill and Mrs. Kenneth Stots served tea, assisted by W.I. members. Mrs. Kelly announced a programme planning meeting at her home on June 3rd.

Yuma residents can figure on 280 sunny days in an average year.
