Bride to be entertained
 Donna Denby, whose marriage to Bruce Palmer takes place in Brown's Corners United Church this Friday evening, June 4 has been feted at several parties.
 There were several miscellaneous showers at which hostesses were Mrs. G. Cluskey and Mrs. W. Jamieson; Miss Penny Morse and friends at the Brown's Corners United Church; the groom's sisters, Mrs. Eric Moore and Mrs. David Durant, held a linen shower, Mrs. Ross Hard and Mrs. Marshall Benson held a kitchen shower and following the rehearsal last Wednesday evening the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Palmer, entertained the wedding party, on Saturday of last week Mrs. Norman Denby held a trousseau tea for her daughter and the bride received guests with the hostesses. Among those pouring tea were close relatives of the bride and groom: Mrs. G. Cluskey, Mrs. W. Jamieson, Mrs. Eric Moore, Mrs. Ross Hard, Mrs. H. Butt, Mrs. R. Woollacott and Mrs. S. Hudson. Assistants in the trousseau and tea rooms were the bride's sisters, Mrs. Keith Hood, Mrs. Douglas Watt and Mrs. Lloyd Tennyson; others were Mrs. Marshall Benson, Misses Joy Fuller, Penny Morse, Mrs. G. Wilcox, Mrs. David Durant and four small nieces: Susan and Cheryl Tennyson and Heather and Melanie Watt.
Selkirk House Burns
 Saturday night local residents were curious about a fire which lit up the sky in the Bayview area. According to Markham Township Police the abandoned Selkirk farmhouse south of Holy Cross cemetery, near the creek which runs back of the derelict Selkirk subdivision west of Bayview Ave., was burned and firemen were called out twice to quench the blaze.
UCW Active
 On Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday of this week Brown's Corners United Church Women will serve hot luncheons to men who are taking special classes at Master Feeds Farm. On Thursday the group will hold a brief meeting at 1:30 p.m. and a bale will be packed.
Brothers Re-united
 Mr. Dick Jones and his brothers, Bill of Riverside, California and Harold of St. Helen's, Lancashire, England were reunited last week at the Dick Jones home here after 47 years. The boys were separated in England as children with Dick and his brother Bill coming to Canada and Harold, the youngest remaining in England.
 Last week the three took a trip to Muskoka, Algonquin Park and down the Ottawa valley to Gananoque and the Seaway catching up on all the years they had missed. On Sunday Bill had to return to California but Harold and the Dick Jones family spent the day at Niagara Falls and this week the two brothers will visit Bruce Jones and his family at Wallaceburg. Next week Harold returns to England but he intends to come back to Canada.

Neighbourhood Notes
 Several new industries in the neighbourhood are changing the face of Don Mills Road in this area.
 At Steele's and Don Mills on the former Mackey farm opposite the Donway Fruit Market, Steel Case of Canada Ltd., began preparation for their new plant last week. The farm house is demolished and the land is being scraped. This appears to be a very large enterprise.
 North of the CNR by-pass the A. Weller Construction Co. are building new offices and a yard; the Don Mills Lumber and Building Supply Co. Ltd. is almost ready for business at the former Baldwin home, north of John St., and across the road on the former Praet farm, Murray Acreman has accumulated row on row of wrecked cars, presumably to continue his business which was formerly conducted on the 3rd concession at Headford. The neighbours may well ponder "How green was my valley."
 Mrs. O. Brooks and the Magee family left our neighbourhood last weekend and have moved to a Willowdale apartment near 401 and Yonge St. On Thursday evening there was a farewell party and presentation for them at Brown's Corners Church and a shower for Marilyn Magee, who will be married to Leopold Sabata in Yorkminster United Church on June 26. Mrs. Walter Magee assisted the bride with her gifts and Mrs. Howard Brunwell and Mrs. Sam Snider concocted a fetching beribboned hat. The presentation of a lamp and kitchen clock was made to Mrs. Brooke and Mrs. Magee by Mrs. E. Hill and Mrs. John Wilkins. The family has been part of the community for many years and the occasion was not without tears. This is another break in this changing community and we will miss them.
