"Drive-In". Church Services Begin At Markham Centre Plaza

For those who have been Sunday evening services are going to begin on the Markham Shopping Plaza the answer is. this coming Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. This will be the fifth summer for the United Missionary Churches of Markham and Dickson's Hill to unite in promoting these outdoor services that have grown more popular each year.

What most people seem to appreciate is the fact that they can drive to the Shopping Plaza, park in front of the Dominion Store and then relax with the whole family to enjoy a service that is amplified to the car.

The planning committee has been working hard to arrange which will be held for the next another series of inspirational and helpful services. As in past summers the emphasis will be on good music and singing with ices that the whole family can musicians and singers repre- attend and enjoy. senting several denominations participating. Much the same equipment will be used again this year. A farmer's wagon will be used for a platform. A choir assembled to the side of the platform will give leadership in the singing. The Ham-mond organ from the church will be used in every service with Mr. Jim McDowell as o ganist. The spacious parking lot will provide ample space for all cars and a good public address system will assure everyone of hearing no matter where they may have parked.
