She was assisted by Mrs. George Tindall of Uxbridge who wore a powder blue silk dress and white accessories with a corsage of Tangerine and white carnations.

For travelling on their honeymoon to New York City the bride chose white lace over powder blue with a matching stole, white accessories and a blue carnation corsage.

Guests were present at the wedding from Toronto, Brantford, London, Selkirk, Stayner, Richmond Hill, and King City. The happy couple are now making their home at 300 Main St. W. in Stouffville.

Editor's Mail

RR 2, Stouffville, Ont. June 12, 1965.

The Editor, Stouffville Tribune, Stouffville, Ont. Dear Sir,

Why, oh why, does everything have to stop at the top of the hill? We, on the 9th line of Whitchurch, 14 miles north of the Aurora Road, feel that we are 'hard done by.'

First, it is where the pavement ends. Why? With gravel trucks tearing along, we are smothered in clouds of dust. Weekend car traffic creates the same situation. In other years, at least, we had water sprayed on a little patch in front of this residence.

It seems all services end on the top of the hill. Deliveries, telephone zone, snow plows and graders are just a few. Our taxes are equal to any in the Township, and are promptly paid.

Is it any wonder that properties are being advertised for sale?

We move to the beautiful country for clean air, peace and quiet with a few conveniences. It is about time a little consideration and courtesy is extended to the taxpayers of properties on the 9th line north of the 24-25th side-road, before election rolls around.

Otherwise, we will, for sure, be sitting right in our living rooms on Election Day.

Yours for
'Equality in Service,'
Elinore M. Cozens.
