Capital Punishment Debate Likely Held During Fall Session

By Michael Starr, M.P.

The session is progressing very favourably and we are making headway in dealing with Government legislation. The standing committees have been set up and they will start work on the Estimates. There is an improved situation in Parliament and I feel that this improvement is noted across the country. The new rules are now being applied and the extra hours are making a noticeable difference in dealing with the matters brought before Parliament.

The Government is preparing a white paper on capital punishment. When it is ready it will be tabled in the House for the perusal of the members. Following this, the plan is to have a debate and eventually to have a vote on this important matter. It has already been established that there will not be the application of party discipline, but each member will be free to vote as his conscience dictates. It is likely that this debate will not take place before the fall of this year, when Parliament will reconvene after the summer recess.

During the past week, we have been visited by the Prime Minister of India and he was with us for five days. He and the Prime Minister had a number of talks, based on the situation in Viet Nam and the United Nations. Their whole objective, according to the communiqué they released, was peace in Viet Nam, and a concern for the future of the United Nations.

The new maps for the Province of Ontario were released and published on Tuesday, June 15th. These new boundaries were arrived at by a Commission set up under an Act passed by Parliament.

The new boundaries are based on a population of 70 thousand, with a tolerance of up to 25% either above or below the 70 thousand. The population total was based on the census which was taken in the year 1961.

The Riding of Ontario has been divided into two ridings. One of the Ridings will be known as "Oshawa Riding" and will be comprised of the City of Oshawa, the Town of Whitby, and that portion of Whitby Township lying between the City of Oshawa and the Town of Whitby.

Since the boundaries were drawn on the 1961 census, the population is shown as 79 thousand. In the past four years this population has increased to close to 100 thousand.

The rest of Ontario County, with an addition of four new townships on the north end, will comprise another Riding and will be known as "Ontario Riding."

The question that arises now, is whether the Government will wait to call an election until the new riding boundaries have been established by an Act, or whether they will dissolve Parliament prior to that and hold the election on the basis of existing riding boundaries. If they do, it will be the third Federal election since the census was taken in 1961. There is still a strong rumour that an election in October of this year is quite likely.

According to a 1959 American Bankers Ass'n. survey, more banks will use newspapers for their advertising than any other medium — in fact, more than will use TV, radio, and magazine combined.
