Miss Joanne Clarke of Willowdale was a dinner guest with Mrs. Grant Wells on Thursday. Miss Clarke also enjoyed afternoon tea with Mrs. B. Burton. Mr. and Mrs. J. Nauta entertained the Birchcliff Masonic Lodge members and their families to a gigantic picnic on Saturday. The afternoon included swimming, racing and most important (at least for the children) "Toppers" the clown made a grand appearance.

Mrs. B. Burton spent the weekend at a cottage in the northland with a group of girlfriends from Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nauta and family were Sunday dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. E. Oldham, Scarborough on the occasion of Mrs. Oldham's birthday.

The CGIT group held their "Mother & Daughter" banquet on Wednesday evening in the church. The dinner was served Trinidadian style with laughs and fun for everyone. Eleven attendance awards were presented for 50% and over. Special awards to Sharron Flewell, Jean Miller and Bonnie Smith for their diaries; Jill Glover received top honours for Bible study. The all-around gal as chosen by the group was Margaret Coughlan who has been president for the past year. The evening program included a fashion show of CGIT uniforms of the past 50 years, and a film strip entitled "Something for Girls" the plans and purpose of this special group. The closing exercises presented Bonnie Smith with her white lanyard signifying a senior. Evening closed with Taps.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Turner and family were Sunday guests with Mrs. Turner's parents in Toronto.

Dr. and Mrs. Crouch had two of their grandsons, Scott and Mark Denton of Belleville visiting with them over the weekend.

The Bake Sale held at Cedar Beach on Saturday under the auspices of the Manse Committee netted $94, a fine result, for a big effort.

The Ballantrae Guides and Brownies held their Mother & Daughter Banquet in the Lemonville church on Thurs. evening. Mrs. J. Manchee, president of the L.A. was chairwoman for the evening. Badges were presented and the girls presented a skit for the evening entertainment.

CEDAR GROVE

No rain. No rain. And the land is beginning to look parched and the people can talk of nothing but the lack of rain. But over Lake Ontario, there has been lots of rain. So we better consider salting the clouds before they get over the lake.

The hay comes in anyway and, in spite of the dry spring, there are some remarkably good crops.

The spectacles which were so generously contributed recently are, believe it or not, all gone. There was such a marvellous response that there seemed to be plenty for a long time but there must have been a backlog of needs. Some went to old people in homes who could not afford new glasses and some went to children whose parents could afford only one pair but not a new pair to replace broken ones. So another appeal. If you have any glasses at all, old or recent, they would be most welcome. 294-1396.

Man alive, how the taxes soar. Baseball scores: Last Wednesday - Villagers 22, C.G. 15; Monday, Girls - C.G. 26, IGA 8, Boys C.G. 27; Supertest 25.
