LITTLE—BRUBACHER

In the Stouffville United Missionary Church at 8 p.m., July 9, the marriage of Laura Mae Brubacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brubacher, and John Robert Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Little, R.R.2 Markham, was solemnized by Rev. Arthur Walsh. For the candlelight service the floral decorations were blue delphinium and white shasta mums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a sheath, with train, of candlelight sultan peau de soie with alcon lace appliques. The cascade bouquet she carried was of white gardenias and pink sweetheart roses with ivy.

The maid-of-honour was Charlotte McNair and bridesmaids were Judith Brubacher, sister of the bride, and Beverly Little, sister of the groom. Their floor length gowns were of blue pink chiffon with empire waist lines and flowing back panels. The carried cascade bouquets of white and blue shasta mums with corn flowers.

The best man was Mr. Robert Stover of Stouffville. The ushers were Mr. Jim Hall and Mr. Bob Anderson, brother-in-law of the groom. Mr. Lester Reist of Kitchener was the soloist and the organist was Mr. Jim McDowell of R.R.3 Stouffville.

The wedding reception was held at Sleepy Hollow Golf and Country Club. The mother of the bride received the guests and wore a dress and hat of turquoise shantung, beaded in matching shades. Her corsage was a single orchid. The mother of the groom chose a shell pink ensemble with matching accessories. Her corsage was of salmon pink cymbidium orchids.

For travelling the bride wore a lime green and white dress with an Italian knit matching green jacket. She wore the groom's gift of a pearl necklace and her corsage was of peach sweetheart roses. They flew to Winnipeg for the wedding ceremony. The church was decorated with white mums and red carnations.

Mrs. Marguerite Jones, of Buttonville, sang "O Perfect Love," "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Prayer," and the organist was Mrs. C. H. Nolan, of Stouffville.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a white full length gown of pure silk organza over taffeta, with scoop neckline and lily point sleeves. The bodice and sheath skirt were trimmed with exquisite appliques of embroidered Swiss lace. The back was highlighted by a flowing chapel train attached at the yoke and trimmed with similar appliques. She wore a shoulder-length veil attached to a headpiece of white pearl lily of the valley, and carried a white Bible and bouquet of red sweet heart roses.

The matron of honour Mrs. Pat Brass, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Miss Muriel Lamb, sister of the groom, and Miss Shirley Elson, of Altona, wore gowns of romance blue silk organza over taffeta, featuring scoop necklines, elbow sleeves, and waltz length bell skirts, the waist accentuated by self rose with matching identical self rose headpieces, and carried bouquets of pink carnations.

The best man was Mr. William Lamb, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Mr. John Waters, brother of the bride, and Mr. John Somerville, of Greenbank.

For the reception, which was held at the Masonic Hall, the bride's mother wore a dress of blue crepe, a pink flower hat and white accessories, and wore a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a white and blue flowered crepe dress, a blue flower hat and white accessories, and wore a corsage of rose carnations.

The newlyweds left on a motor trip to the East Coast. The bride chose for her travelling costume a two piece yellow linen suit and matching hat, and wore an orchid corsage. On their return, they will reside at Manchester, Ont.

Guests at the wedding came from Brighton, Greenbank, Kingston, Niagara Falls, N.Y., Ottawa, Peterborough, Port Hope, Port Perry, Toronto and Whitby.

Prior to her marriage, Irene was honoured at a presentation at the home of Mrs. Hugh Strong, Manchester, a presentation from her pupils at Greenwood, showers at the homes of Mrs. Frank Barker, Claremont, and Mrs. Wilf Morley, Stouffville, and Mrs. Waters also entertained at a Trousseau Tea in honour of her daughter.

For the reception, which took place at Summitview Gardens at Richmond Hill, the bride's mother chose a pink silk shantung with lace bodice and white accessories. The groom's mother wore a 2 piece blue shantung suit with matching accessories. They both wore corsages of pink roses.

For their honeymoon, they motored through Northern Ontario and Michigan, the bride wearing a yellow linen suit with white accessories and a yellow rose corsage. They will reside at 17 Wisteria St. Scarborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Chevins of Stouffville wish to announce the engagement of their daughter Daphne to Mr. George Roger Stover, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover, of Stouffville. The wedding will take place in the Stouffville United Missionary Church at three o'clock on Saturday, August the twenty-first.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Murray Nelson are pictured here following their recent wedding in the Stouffville Memorial Christian Church. The bride is the former Sharon Lois Harman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Harman, Stouffville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson, Don Mills.

WEDDING

NELSON—HARMAN

Stouffville Memorial Christian Church was the scene of a wedding on Saturday, July 17, 1965, when Rev. Norman Rowan officiated at the marriage of Sharon Lois Harman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Harman, and Bruce Murray Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson, Don Mills. Mrs. Keith Hutchinson sang "Because" before the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register. Mr. Bill Johnson was the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original portrait gown of imported faille fashioned on empire sheath lines featuring short lace sleeves and lace paneling insets on the skirt, with full shoulder attached train. Her finger tip tulle illusion veil was held in place by a rose head piece, trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of deep pink roses. Her attendants were her sister, Mrs. Shirley McCurdy, matron of honor, in a yellow Empire sheath gown. Marlene Tunney, niece of the bride, Gail Nelson, sister of the groom and Pauline Hood, bridesmaids, were gowned alike, in floor length aqua chiffon over taffeta, empire line sheath dresses featuring chantilly lace tops, full scalloped veil matching head pieces. They carried cascades of yellow shasta mums. The flower girls, Debbie and Lori McCurdy, nieces of the bride, wore floor length gowns, identical to that of the matron of honour. They carried nosegays of yellow and aqua mums. Mark Harman, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Stewart Nelson, brother of the groom, was best man. Donald and Bill Harman, brothers of the bride, and Allan Bulloch, brother-in-law of the groom, were ushers, attired in white dinner jackets and dark trousers.

For the reception held at the Masonic Hall, the bride's mother received the guests wearing a pale blue lace dress, matching shoes and white accessories with a pink rose corsage. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing a navy suit with white accessories and a pink rose corsage.

For the honeymoon to Northern Ontario the bride chose a yellow coat dress ensemble, black accessories and an orchid corsage. On their return they will reside in Don Mills.

At the reception a special toast was proposed by Rev. Rowan to Miss Priscilla Piper, 90 year old cousin of the bride, who made the wedding cake.

Editor's Mail

Mr. C. H. Nolan, Editor, The Tribune, Stouffville, Ont.

Dear Mr. Nolan: Once again it is our pleasure on behalf of the National Public Relations Advisory Committee and Salvation Army leaders to express sincere appreciation for the fine support your newspaper gave to the Red Shield Appeal now being rapidly brought to a successful conclusion.

The National Centennial Campaign commemorating as it does "100 years of service to God and man" throughout the world promises to be the best on record and when all the returns have been received we are hopeful that the maintenance total of $3,257,568.00 will be over-subscribed.

Again thanking you and your colleagues for the support given to the 1965 Red Shield Appeal. Cordially yours, T. L. Carswell, Lt.-Col., National Campaign Director.

New Stamp Portrays Sir Winston Churchill

Details of a Canadian postage stamp to be issued August 12 to honour Sir Winston Churchill were released today by the Hon. George Tremblay, Postmaster General.

The stamp is the first Canadian stamp printed by the duotone offset process, a method of printing particularly suited to the reproduction of photographs. It features the famous "roaring lion" portrait of Sir Winston Churchill by Yousuf Karsh, internationally renowned Canadian photographer. Complementary design is the work of Philip Weiss, Canadian artist and Director of the Department of Industry's National Design Branch.

The stamp will be printed in brown by the Canadian Bank Note Company Limited of Ottawa. The total number of stamps printed is 35 million.
