NEIGHBOURHOOD NOTES
 Farmers were combining last week, but grain is damp this year, and much of it has to be dried at local fanning mills. The situation was tricky last week-end when blowers at the mills clogged and farm trucks were lined up for several hours waiting service.

 Mrs. James McQuay and Mr. and Mrs. Don McQuay returned from a trip to Saskatchewan where they visited relatives.
 Betty Huston Timmermans of Sudbury spent some time with Mrs. S. J. English last Saturday, during a visit to the Mumber-son home.

On Tuesday of last week Mrs. English's grandson, Bill Bartram and his wife Anne, who is the first married woman to be ordained into the United Church ministry, were dinner guests at Braedoon Farm. The Bartarams now live at Elk Lake where Mrs. Bartram is the minister of the charge.
 Saturday of last week

Brown's Corners United Church Women catered at the church for the Wellman family gathering.
 Congratulations to Charles Hooper on obtaining 99% for barley in the Field Crop competitions for Fall Wheat and Barley honoured by the Markham and East York Agricultural Society. In the Fall Wheat division, Sutherland and Gough were winners, with 92%.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Walton entertained guests from Florida last week.
 Al and Beverly Jones and their family have been vacationing at Lake Couchiching recently.
 Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jones spent last Sunday at Pidgeon Lake with friends.
 Mrs. George Hooper was the soloist at Brown's Corners Church last Sunday, and Mrs. Ron Reesor the organist. Mr. R. G. Hobbs is taking all services during August, in the absence of Dr. Binnington.
 Guests at the Crawford-Fuller wedding at Brown's Corners Church included—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Burr, Mr. Newton Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Carson, Mrs. George Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Craigie, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Don Arnold, Lynn Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig and Janet, Mr. and Mrs. James Rodick, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jackson, Miss Elizabeth French, Mrs. S. W. English, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reesor, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Gohn, Mirvin Gohn, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gohn, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Benson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Walton, Mrs. E. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevenson. After the ceremony, the bridal party called on Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hord and Mr. E. Pratt, who were unable to attend the wedding.
 Noisome had become awfully unpopular in the apartment house he lived in since taking up the trumpet. He was riding down in the elevator one morning and met another tenant. "Tell me honestly," he asked the neighbor, "does my practicing make you nervous?"
 "Well, it used to, when I first heard the other tenants complaining about it," the neighbor replied, "but now I don't care what happens to you."
