RINGWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Holden, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ridout, Mrs. G. Lemon attended the unveiling of a picture as background for the baptistry of the Baptist church, Bobcaygeon, presented by Mrs. Morris Gillon and her daughter-in-law, in memory of their late husbands, Morris and Mervyn Gillon, on Sunday, Sept. 19th.

Twenty-two "had been" neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Harman on Friday to give Mr. and Mrs. D. Wightman and family a "going away" party. (They have moved to the east end of Stouffville). Mr. and Mrs. Norman Feckler showed pictures of their recent trip to Scotland, which was very much enjoyed by all the guests. We regret losing the Wightman family from our community, but wish them well in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cort entertained the students of Ringwood, Stouffville, and Wilcox Lake to a corn roast recently.

Those tired-looking people you're seeing these days are the ones just back from a late summer vacation.

Though unable to attend some folks viewed on television the opening ceremonies of the new Toronto City Hall, on Monday of last week.

Rev. B. Jones and Mr. Max Vague sang duets at the Peach's United church anniversary service on Sunday afternoon.

The Harvest Home services on Sunday were taken both morning and evening with the pastor as speaker. Miss Helen Lewis was soloist at the morning service. Mrs. M. Keith and Mrs. B. Silverthorn at the piano and organ.

The sale of antique articles held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Keer on Saturday afternoon brought high prices and bidding was brisk.

Do you know Mr. F. W. Todd?

There's a good chance that you do. He lives and works right here. He gets around quite a lot and he knows this town very well. That's part of his job.

He's the manager of your local branch of Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce. And he's a good man to know. For help with financial matters or for sound advice, on anything to do with banking, he's the man to see.

If you haven't already met him, by all means call in soon. He'll be glad to see you.
