Neighbourhood Notes

The frost is on the pumpkin this bright Monday — a sharp change from last week's record breaking high temperatures.

Most local farmers have finished the grain harvest this very late season; much of the wheat is planted; but corn is still standing.

There is a busy autumn lined up for this community:

Markham Fair on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week — Buttonville Women's Institute will have a display in the Women's section; and York Central Hospital Auxiliary will man a home baking booth, with Buttonville Branch taking charge from 26 p.m. on Friday (in the General Exhibit Bldg.). The Euchre Series at Buttonville W.I. Hall will begin Oct. 8, at 8 p.m.

Brown's Corners Church will join the Partnership of the Ministry, meetings to begin for executive and group captains this week, and general meetings planned for November.

Sunday, Oct. 2, World Wide Communion at Brown's Corners Church.

Leadership Training for Sunday School Teachers and Officers to begin at Brown's Corners Sunday evening, Oct. 3, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Smorgasbord at Brown's Corners Church, Tuesday, Nov. 2. And of course there is the International Plowing Match which will be held at Massey-Ferguson farms from Oct. 13 to 16, when many local people will be actively involved.

Last Sunday, Headford United Church celebrated its 115th anniversary with special services, and members of Brown's Corners and Victoria Square congregations attended. The lovely little church was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers.

Mrs. Stewart Rumble and the choir provided sweet music, and guest speakers were Rev. Chas. Higginson and Rev. M. Jenkinson. A good day was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Miller celebrated their 41st wedding anniversary on Saturday, Sept. 25, and were dinner guests of the Paul Mingay's at Julie's Place, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pralet are home again after spending a long vacation with family and friends in England and Jersey; and Lynda Leaf returned last week from a similar holiday.

Gordon Brown is back at Thornhill Secondary School, gr. 13 this year, following his recent illness.

Mrs. Pat Tully, Simon and Michael were members of the cast of the North York Pioneers pageant at Black Creek Conservation area, Pioneer Village, week before last. Their pictures appeared on the front page of a Toronto paper.

Deanna McNelly has won laurels with her Arabian horse at recent horse shows. It was Press Day at Massey-Ferguson Farms, Thursday afternoon of last week, when members of the Canadian news media were given a preview of what the International Plowing Match will have to offer. It will be held at the Milliken Farms from Oct. 13 to 16. There is every indication that this year's event will be the largest ever.

There were tours of the farm, speeches and a beef barbecue to top off the afternoon. Among local people present were Reeve and Mrs. Charles Hooper, past Reeve and County Warden W. L. Clark, Wm. Champion, Bill Hood, Ray McFavish, Miss Cora Brodie and Mrs. Fred Leaf.

Happy Timers Hear Victor Home Speaker

Brown's Corners Unit No. 1 of the United Church Women, the Happy Timers, had Mrs. Deering of the Victor Home for Girls as their guest speaker, when they met at the home of Mrs. John Brumwell on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Bruce Armstrong conducted the meeting, and hostesses were Mrs. George Hooper and Mrs. Bill Wilson. Mrs. Hooper read an article on work being accomplished by the women of India. During business the group discussed a bazaar to be held late in November.

Mrs. Armstrong also spoke of the need for leaders in various youth organizations.

Dr. and Mrs. George Kelly visited the Muskoka area last weekend, but were a little early for spectacular colour.

Mrs. Kelly was a guest speaker at the Dist. No. 7 Ontario Hospital Auxiliaries' meeting which was held Tuesday, Sept. 28, at Barrie. Mrs. Kelly is a vice-president of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary.

ATHA

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Cose, Lori and Larry of Mount Albert were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Don Dunkeld.

Mrs. E. Carruthers and Ruth Anne attended the christening of Donald Bruce Wagg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wagg, on Sunday, Sept. 19, at the Stouffville United Church.
