LAFF OF THE WEEK

"This does NOT take the place of our vacation trip this year!"

DICKSON HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Eby visited the Bruce Clarke family at Woodstock during the weekend.
Mr. Harold Faw of Aylmer, now a student at Emmanuel Bible College, Kitchener, spent Sunday with his brother, Pastor Ronald Faw.
Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Hallman of Rochester spent a few days last week with relatives here.
Mr. Robt. McCrae of London, Ont., son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Rayment of Creemore, called at the Roy Moyer home last Friday. Friends of Lorne, who used to live here, will be sorry to learn that he is presently in hospital at Collingwood, following a heart attack.
Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Walker and family have moved into their newly renovated home on the ninth concession of Markham. The house they vacated, is now occupied by the Jack Yardner family, who made their temporary home at the Markham motel.

AUDLEY

Church services continue at 11 a.m., preceded by Sunday School at 9:45. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed this Sunday.
Seven of the Sunday School teachers and officers attended a meeting at Pickering on Sunday evening.
The Hi-C group enjoyed a tour on Sunday afternoon of Casa Loma and also the Museum.
The community club will meet on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Richards. A game of court whist has been planned.
A car-load of ladies attended the bazaar and tea at Greenwood on Saturday afternoon.
Other activities enjoyed by local people on Saturday included the Mosport races, Lindsay Fair and the Barbecue at the Heber Down farm, sponsored by the P.C. Association.
The community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. J. Hill and their four girls who have moved from Ajax to the former Leonard home.

York Presbyterial United Church Women Executive Meeting

Ideal weather conditions and helpful communications combined to make a successful Sept. 14th executive meeting at Zephyr United Church.
Mrs. S. Jones, York Presbyterial president, conducted the meeting and set the theme of "Giving" with an appropriate selection from "Mary Stewart Collect." Mrs. Harrison, Zephyr U.C.W. president, welcomed the ladies. Regret was expressed that Mrs. Archie Huson, Press secretary, was unable to attend owing to her husband's illness. Mrs. A. Gardhouse was appointed to take her place. Mrs. Montgomery gave a short report on an inspiring U.C.W. Conference she attended at Toronto Conference delegate. The subject being "Communicating the Faith."

Mrs. York, Leadership Development Chairman, related plans for the Fall Rally, to be held Tuesday, Oct. 26th, in Trinity United Church, Uxbridge from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Lunch at 12:30. Fine fellowship, outstanding speakers, helpful skits, large literature display, will feature this Rally.
Members were asked to urge all young people to attend Open House at Covenant College, Oct. 26th at 7 p.m. Students will report on their summer work.
Mrs. P. Bennett reported on Christian Education. This year's theme is "Jesus Christ and the Christian Life." The Explorers Workshop will be held at Wesley Church, Vanderford.

The Citizenship and Social Action secretary, Mrs. Gardhouse, advocated the use of the 50c book "Listen to the World," as good programme material. The new coloured filmstrip "The Long Road" was highly recommended to introduce Indian Life and Problems in Canada To-Day. Outlined programmes based on the book "Why the Sea is Boiling Hot" were distributed.
Mrs. Fish reported for the Nominations committee. It is expected that each officer will complete her 2 year term.

Mrs. McCague brought those present up-to-date on her continuing good work on the "Archives."
Mrs. Booth, Stewardship and Recruiting secretary, stressed the use of the pamphlets "Over and Above" and "Careers." She also recommended the "Sarah Little" tapes.
Mrs. Walker reported on Supply and Social Assistance.
On a motion by Mrs. Fish a "Sunshine Fund" was established to send cards, flowers etc., in case of illness or bereavement. Mrs. Gordon was named "Sunshine Lady."
The treasurer, Mrs. Todd, gave a good, concise report.

Mrs. Hollinger stressed the necessity of having a definite budget. She also emphasized the fact that the 1966 allocation could be met if each U.C.W. member would increase her give by the price of 1 lb. of raisins. After much discussion it was moved by Mrs. Hollinger, seconded by Dr. Arkinstall and passed by the executive that York's share of the U.C.W. allocation be accepted.
Refreshment by an appetizing supper served by Zephyr members. 74 ladies gathered for the evening session. Mrs. J. Morris and Mrs. Gordon of Newmarket were in charge of the worship service.

A skit written by Mrs. Pickering was presented by the Zephyr ladies. It was based on an address by Dr. Long, "Eternal Values in a Changing World." The meeting closed with the Benediction.
