

Claremont News

Next Sunday, October 25, will be the 144th anniversary of the Claremont Baptist Church. Special anniversary services will be held at 11:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Rev. N. H. Parker of Hamilton will be the guest speaker, and Miss Vivian Sadler of Bowmanville will be the guest soloist. The church will welcome old and new friends at the family gathering and fireside chat which will be held in the Sunday school hall following the evening service, and refreshments will be served. There will be an exhibit of photographs of some of the former ministers who served here. In the 144 years since its inception, 30 different ministers have attended to the spiritual needs of the Baptist people in Claremont.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Pugh and family of Prince Albert spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Pugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gostick.

Mr. Clifford Jones of Toronto was a Thanksgiving guest at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs.

Frank Hayward. Mr. and Mrs. Al Wilson and Kevin of Brougham were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Hill and family on Sunday.

Lyn Sanderson, Susan Sanderson, Unni Skjaveland, Mary Bainbridge and Susan Randall are the newest members of the Claremont Brownie Pack.

Peninsula Lake, Huntsville, was chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Vale and daughter Dawn of Claremont and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Colley of Unionville as the place to spend their Thanksgiving holiday.

Mrs. Bernard Burnell and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hanson of Stouffville.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hedges have returned from visiting relatives at Smith Falls. Recent visitors at the Hedges' home were Mr. and Mrs. W. Bates of Easton's Corners and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bates of Woodbridge.

On Wednesday of last week, October 13, members from the Crest Theatre, Toronto, and other theatre groups, came to the Scott Symons' home on the 9th concession, for a reading of a play written by Mr. Symons and entitled "The Canadian Dream." The reading coincided with the hanging of the 650 pound iron cog-tree which artist-sculptor Robin MacKenzie has been working on for some time, and which will hold the Symons collection of rare wooden and tin sculptured roosters made by French-Canadians in the 18th and 19th centuries. The cog-tree plays an important part in the theme of Mr. Symons' play. A former curator of the Canadian Gallery of the Royal Ontario Museum, Mr. Symons says that this cog-tree by the young Claremont artist is the most important piece of iron sculpting that has been done in Canada this year.

Monday evening, October 24, at 7:45, the men of the Baptist Church will be in charge of the programme for the Mission Circle meeting. Mr. Bob Hansen has arranged to have a visitor from Africa, the Rev. Arthur Kelsey of Nigeria, show pictures and curios of that continent. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cockburn, Steven and Scott, of Barrie were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Pearsall over the weekend.

The Annual Meeting of the Claremont Co-op will be held Thursday, Oct. 21st (tonight) in the Baptist Church.

DO YOUR WINTER PLANNING NOW

Plan now to get all those jobs done this winter. Things like having the lawnmower fixed, and the screens mended; having the car tuned up and onboard motor checked; having the drapes cleaned and the rugs shampooed; having the furniture re-upholstered and the electrical appliances repaired; having all those repair and renovation jobs done which can call for a long wait come Spring, but which can be handled quickly, efficiently and easily during the winter season. Ask your bank about a low-interest NHA Home Improvement Loan. Plan ahead. Be a Winter-planner now.

Everybody benefits when winter work is increased
