Victoria Square Honours Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Boynton

(Mrs. W. Sandle)
VICTORIA SQUARE — In the early years of the 1900's, a dapper young man from Cashel, Rolph Boynton, like to go driving. It wasn't long before his horse knew the gateway to Burnham's farm, and a romance began to blossom with Nellie, the younger daughter. The older daughter, Pearl, became Mrs. Ross Nichols, and these two people still live at Victoria Sq., after 60 years of married life.

Nellie broke off her romance and took off to the north country to teach school. Rolph's driver had to learn a new gateway. This time it was to the Lundy home. He and Louise were married and raised a daughter Vera, who now lives with her husband and family at Cannington. Nellie also married and raised her daughters who are also married and live in homes of their own. Each of these two people knew the happiness and sorrows of life and after their mates had passed away they settled down to days of loneliness. Nellie in Orillia, and Rolph in his home at Victoria Square.

However, God in His goodness did not intend these wonderful people to be lonely. When Nellie came to visit her sister Pearl, the pieces of broken romance were picked up and soon the pattern fell into place. No one suspected when Rolph would turn his car north up Don Mills Rd., but as secrets will do, it finally got out.

On Saturday, Oct. 16th, 1965, Mrs. Nellie Burnham Duggan, became Mrs. Rolph Boynton. The wedding was held in Toronto with all their families present, the ceremony performed by an old minister friend of Nellie's, the Rev. Geo. Davison. God sent down His blessings in beautiful sunshine on a perfect October day. Once again they know the joy of companionship. Many years of good health and happiness are wished for them.

On Saturday, Oct. 23rd, Open House was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bennett, in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Boynton's recent wedding. It was given by the teachers and staff of the Sunday School. Present for the occasion were two aunts of Rolph's, and a sister of Mrs. Boynton's, who are all over 80 years of age.

Pouring at the tea-table were, in the afternoon: Mrs. R. Perkins, Mrs. C. Story, Mrs. Binnington and Miss Olive Glover. In the evening: Mrs. K. Petty, Mrs. J. Leitch, Mrs. G. Mortson and Mrs. C. Steckley.
