Daniel F. Sheridan of Wilson Street was apprehended after he allegedly took a car from the lot of Markham Chrysler-Dodge. Police charged him with taking a motor vehicle with intent to operate, and a second charge of a similar nature. Acting Crown Attorney withdrew the second charge, making Sheridan responsible for the first infraction only.

P.C. Richard Robertson told the court that Sheridan had admitted taking the car, after it was found abandoned on Peter Street.

The youth explained that the keys were in the car, the doors were open and there was a full tank of gas. He added that he 'just wanted to go for a ride'.

Magistrate Russell Pearse. vealed that members of Markham Chrysler-Dodge did not know the car was missing until 2 p.m. Motto-No ones heart police returned it.

Magistrate Pearsc said he wanted to know more about the. grade nine student, and ordered a pre-sentence report. Sheridan was remanded to Newmarket court, Nov. 10.

Faulty Equipment Could Cost Life -Magistrate

Magistrate Russell Pearse told a 19 year old youth Friday that faulty equipment on a car could cost a life, even though the fault seems minor.

Frank Beach of R.R.1 Uxbridge, who was charged for having a noisy muffler, was warned by the Magistrate that carbon monoxide fumes from the muffler could cause death. Beach was charged by Stouffville Police when he drove down Main Street, causing unnecessary noise because of the muffler.

Mr. Pearse added that last year the fine for that charge was $5, but the laws have been amended bringing the cost from anywhere between $10 and Beach was convicted and fined $25 and costs.
