Faith Mission Supt. To Speak At Markham

Guest speaker in the Markham United Missionary Church next Sunday, Dec. 5, will be the Rev. J. Allan Wallace, General Superintendent in Canada for the Faith Mission in Canada. The Mission is truly an inter-denominational one but seeks as far as possible to co-operate with existing churches in the furtherance of the Gospel. The main emphasis is that of evangelism and leading Christians into a cleansed, Spirit-filled, Spirit-controlled life.

Rev. J. Allan Wallace

The Faith Mission was founded in the United Kingdom by the late John George Gowan in 1886 for the purpose of evangelizing the small towns and villages of Great Britain. There are now branches in France, South Africa and Canada with a number of missions having been held in the U.S.A. The Canadian Superintendent, Mr. Wallace will be speaking in the 11 o'clock worship service in the United Missionary Church and also in the 7:30 p.m. evening service. Mrs. Wallace will be joining with her husband in providing the special music for the day. The public is cordially invited to hear this interesting speaker on Sunday.

Carol Ann Cossey Donald T. White Wed in U. Church

STOUFFVILLE — The United Church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, mums and white shasta poms, for the wedding of Carol Ann Cossey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cossey, Stouffville and Donald Thomas White, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Harry White, Whitevale, on Saturday, Nov. 6th 1965, by Rev. A. L. Borland. Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a white satin gown with scoop neckline, 3/4 length sleeves and long chapel train. Her scalloped veil was shoulder-length falling from a jaunty pearl head piece. She carried a cascade bouquet of three white orchids, pink roses and white stephanotis.

Maid of honour Miss Gale Cossey, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids Miss Donna Ferguson of RR 2, Stouffville; Miss Marilynne Haylow of Washington, D.C. and Miss Christine Wright of Santa Monica, California wore floor length gowns of blue-green peau de chamois, with 3/4 length sleeves and scoop neckline. Their headpieces were matching bows of peau de chamois.

They all carried crested shaped bouquets of white mums. Mr. Sandy Ritchie, Toronto, was the best man.

Mr. Robert Scourrah, Toronto, Mr. Allan Boyd, Stouffville and Mr. Allan Tromley, Toronto were the ushers, and Mr. J. E. Murdoch, Newmarket was the organist.

The soloist was Mr. Lorne Boardway of Stouffville, who sang the Wedding Prayer and O Perfect Love.

The wedding reception took place at the Sleepy Hollow Golf and Country Club.

The bride's mother chose a ruby red velvet dress with matching hat and shoes and a corsage of white orchids and white carnations. The groom's mother wore a gold brocade dress with matching hat and black accessories and a corsage of white orchids and white carnations.

For their honeymoon the newlyweds motored to Montreal, New York City and Washington D.C. For travelling the bride chose a two piece ruby red wool suit, black velvet hat, black accessories and a corsage of gardenias and stephanotis. They are residing at 258 Main St. N., Markham. Guests were present from Santa Monica, California, Montreal, Brantford, Toronto, Leamington, Chatham, Whitevale, Streetsville, Stouffville and Markham.

A TRIBUTE TO MY LATE WIFE JOAN She was the kindest and most dedicated wife and mother that ever lived. Her tender loving care was without equal. Her warmth and compassion were a great joy to us, for all the years we were together. Always a steady, guiding influence, a cheerful, considerate helpmate and companion. Honest and forthright, always willing to sacrifice herself for the comforts of others. Always ready to give a hand to anyone suffering or in need and always forgiving the shortcomings of others. Her thoughts were always of me and our children, and now, our thoughts will always be of her. Russell Forfar.
