Mrs. Elmer Wells Honoured By U.C.W.

LEMONTVILLE — At the U.C.W. meeting held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Grant Wells, Mrs. Elmer Wells was presented with a beautiful set of Cornflower Stemware juice glasses on the occasion of her 50th wedding anniversary, Dec. 30th. Mrs. Wells has been a faithful member of the organization for over 30 years and filled the position of treasurer for 15 years. She had also received her Life Membership. It was fitting that Mrs. Wells should receive this tribute and presentation in her former home "Spruceair" where she spent most of her 50 years of wedded happiness. Many changes have taken place within the local organization, even to the changing of its name from Ladies Aid to Women's Association to the United Church Women. But through it all, the purpose has remained the same — to love, to lead and to serve the Church, the Community and the World. Mrs. Wells has been a prime example of one who has fulfilled this high ideal. Congratulations. Children and adults alike enjoyed a morning of skating Sunday. The White Gift Service has been re-scheduled for this Sunday, Dec. 19. Don't forget the Sunday School Concert this Friday and the Lemonville School Concert Monday the 20th. U.C.W. members are requested to bring along their Sunshine Box items to the Sunday School Concert. The Quintette sang for the Bethesda Women's Institute at the home of Mrs. A. Wideman last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hisey welcomed a new baby girl to their home this week. Congratulations! Mrs. R. Ashbridge, Cub master, reports that boys 7½ to 8 are welcome to join the pack at the January 5 meeting. Local girls, Joan Wilson and Bonnie Campsall accompanied Guide-leaders Mrs. L. Hartwick and Mrs. S. Campbell in the Santa Claus Parade at Newmarket. The Monroes will be welcoming Mrs. Monroe's family from Boston, Mass., for the holidays. The Monroes have named their beautiful estate "Windrush". Mrs. Edna Poulson of Mount Albert Florists was the speaker at the U.C.W. meeting Wednesday held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Wells. Among the many guests present were Mrs. R. Flewell, Mrs. S. Reesor, Mrs. D. Symes, Mrs. W. Cloughton and Mrs. W. Senecal. Mrs. W. Unru, Mrs. T. Eri and Mrs. D. Daniels were among the ladies present Monday morning when a sewing bee was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. Smith. Mr. G. Wells attended the Fluid Milk Producers Meeting held at Newmarket High School Monday night. Be sure to set aside Friday, Dec. 24, so you can be with us for the Christmas Eve Candlelight Service at the Little White Church On The Hill. Mr. M. Turner and Mr. T. Kerr were among guests Saturday at the Kerr's. The Burtons enjoyed a swimming party Saturday night in Scarborough. Mr. Richard Burton was among the Burtons' weekend guests. Birthday Greetings to: Jesse Collins, 4 years, and Sharon Unru, 12 years.

SEE RED
This country can give away a billion dollars at a time to other countries. Our MPs can grab off $8,000 increases and get away with it.
But some of our people have to live in unheated shacks in this climate, and scavenge in dumps and garbage pails. And we call this a Christian country. It is enough to make a person see several shades of red.
An immediate, emergency housing solution would be for our federal and provincial governments to rush available winterized cabin trailers to Kenora and other places where they could be used. At least these unfortunate people would be more comfortably housed.
