Mrs. Ed. Wilby, Robinson St., had an unfortunate accident last Friday at a euchre in Buttonville Hall. She fell over a coat rack and broke her right leg above the knee. She will be confined to the York Central Hospital for about three months. The euchre was for the benefit of the Hospital Auxiliary.

Kiernan and Crothers Plaza Drugs will be open for two hours only on Christmas Day for those in the area requiring drug needs. The hours will extend from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

Larry Gibbons of Collingwood and Danny Makey of Dunnville, members of the Markham Junior "B" Hockey Club, will spend Christmas at their homes. Both attend Markham Dist. High School.

Larry James underwent a tonsillectomy operation at St. Michael's Hospital last week. He is making an excellent recovery.

Johnny Matson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matson, Rouge St., passed away at Peterboro this week.

The Markham United Missionary Church presented a Christmas Cantata on Sunday evening entitled "So Let It Shine". A large congregation was in attendance. Rev. Grant Sloss was in charge of the service.

A CHRISTMAS GIFT

I came. I saw. And I wondered Why He should send His one And only to be born. Born in Manger small, and stable Lowly. Born so that humble Shepherds, journeying wisemen And I might come. And I Wondered why He did not Choose some other way? A Palace, fit for a King. Then I Thought, it was love, that everlasting bond. Between Father And Son and Man. I knelt.
