

Looking Back On The Year That Was: The Tribune's Cameras Caught These Scenes In 1965

Maple Leaf Flag is raised at Markham.

Drag strip opens after license renewed.

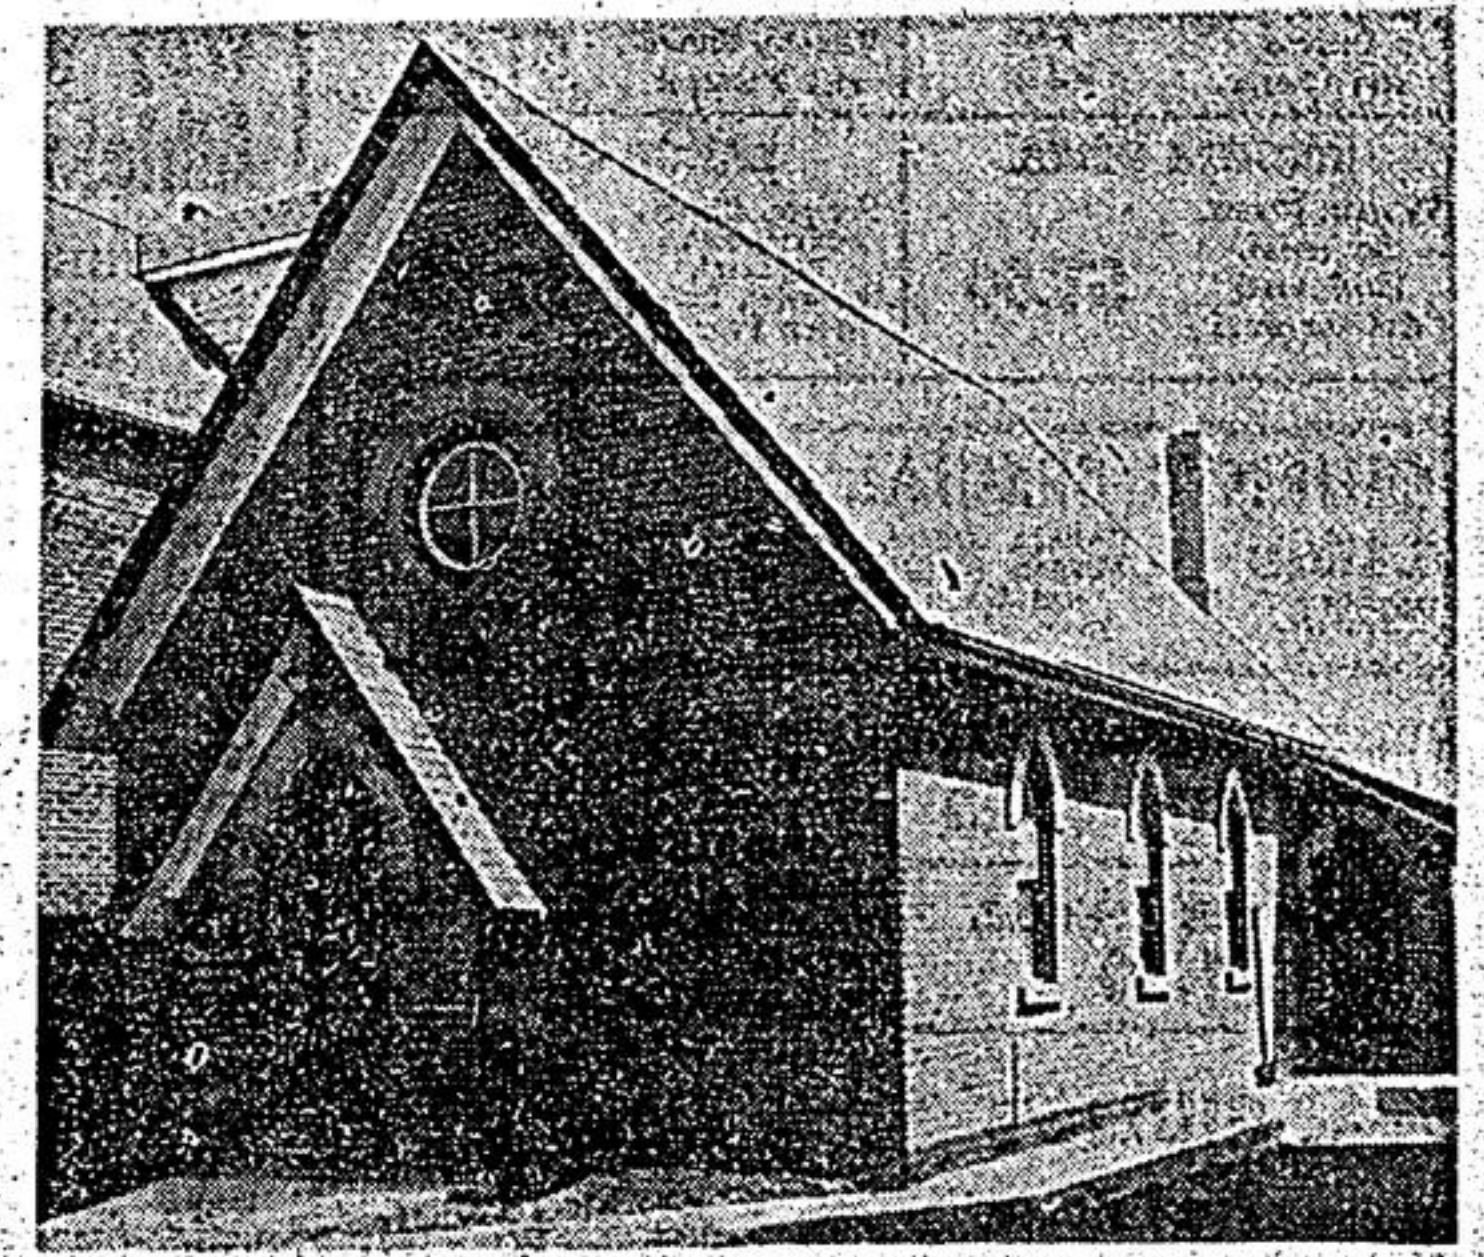

Pilot Ronald Ross, Glasgow sod specialist, is killed in plane crash.

Audience and actors enjoy Stouffville Player's group.

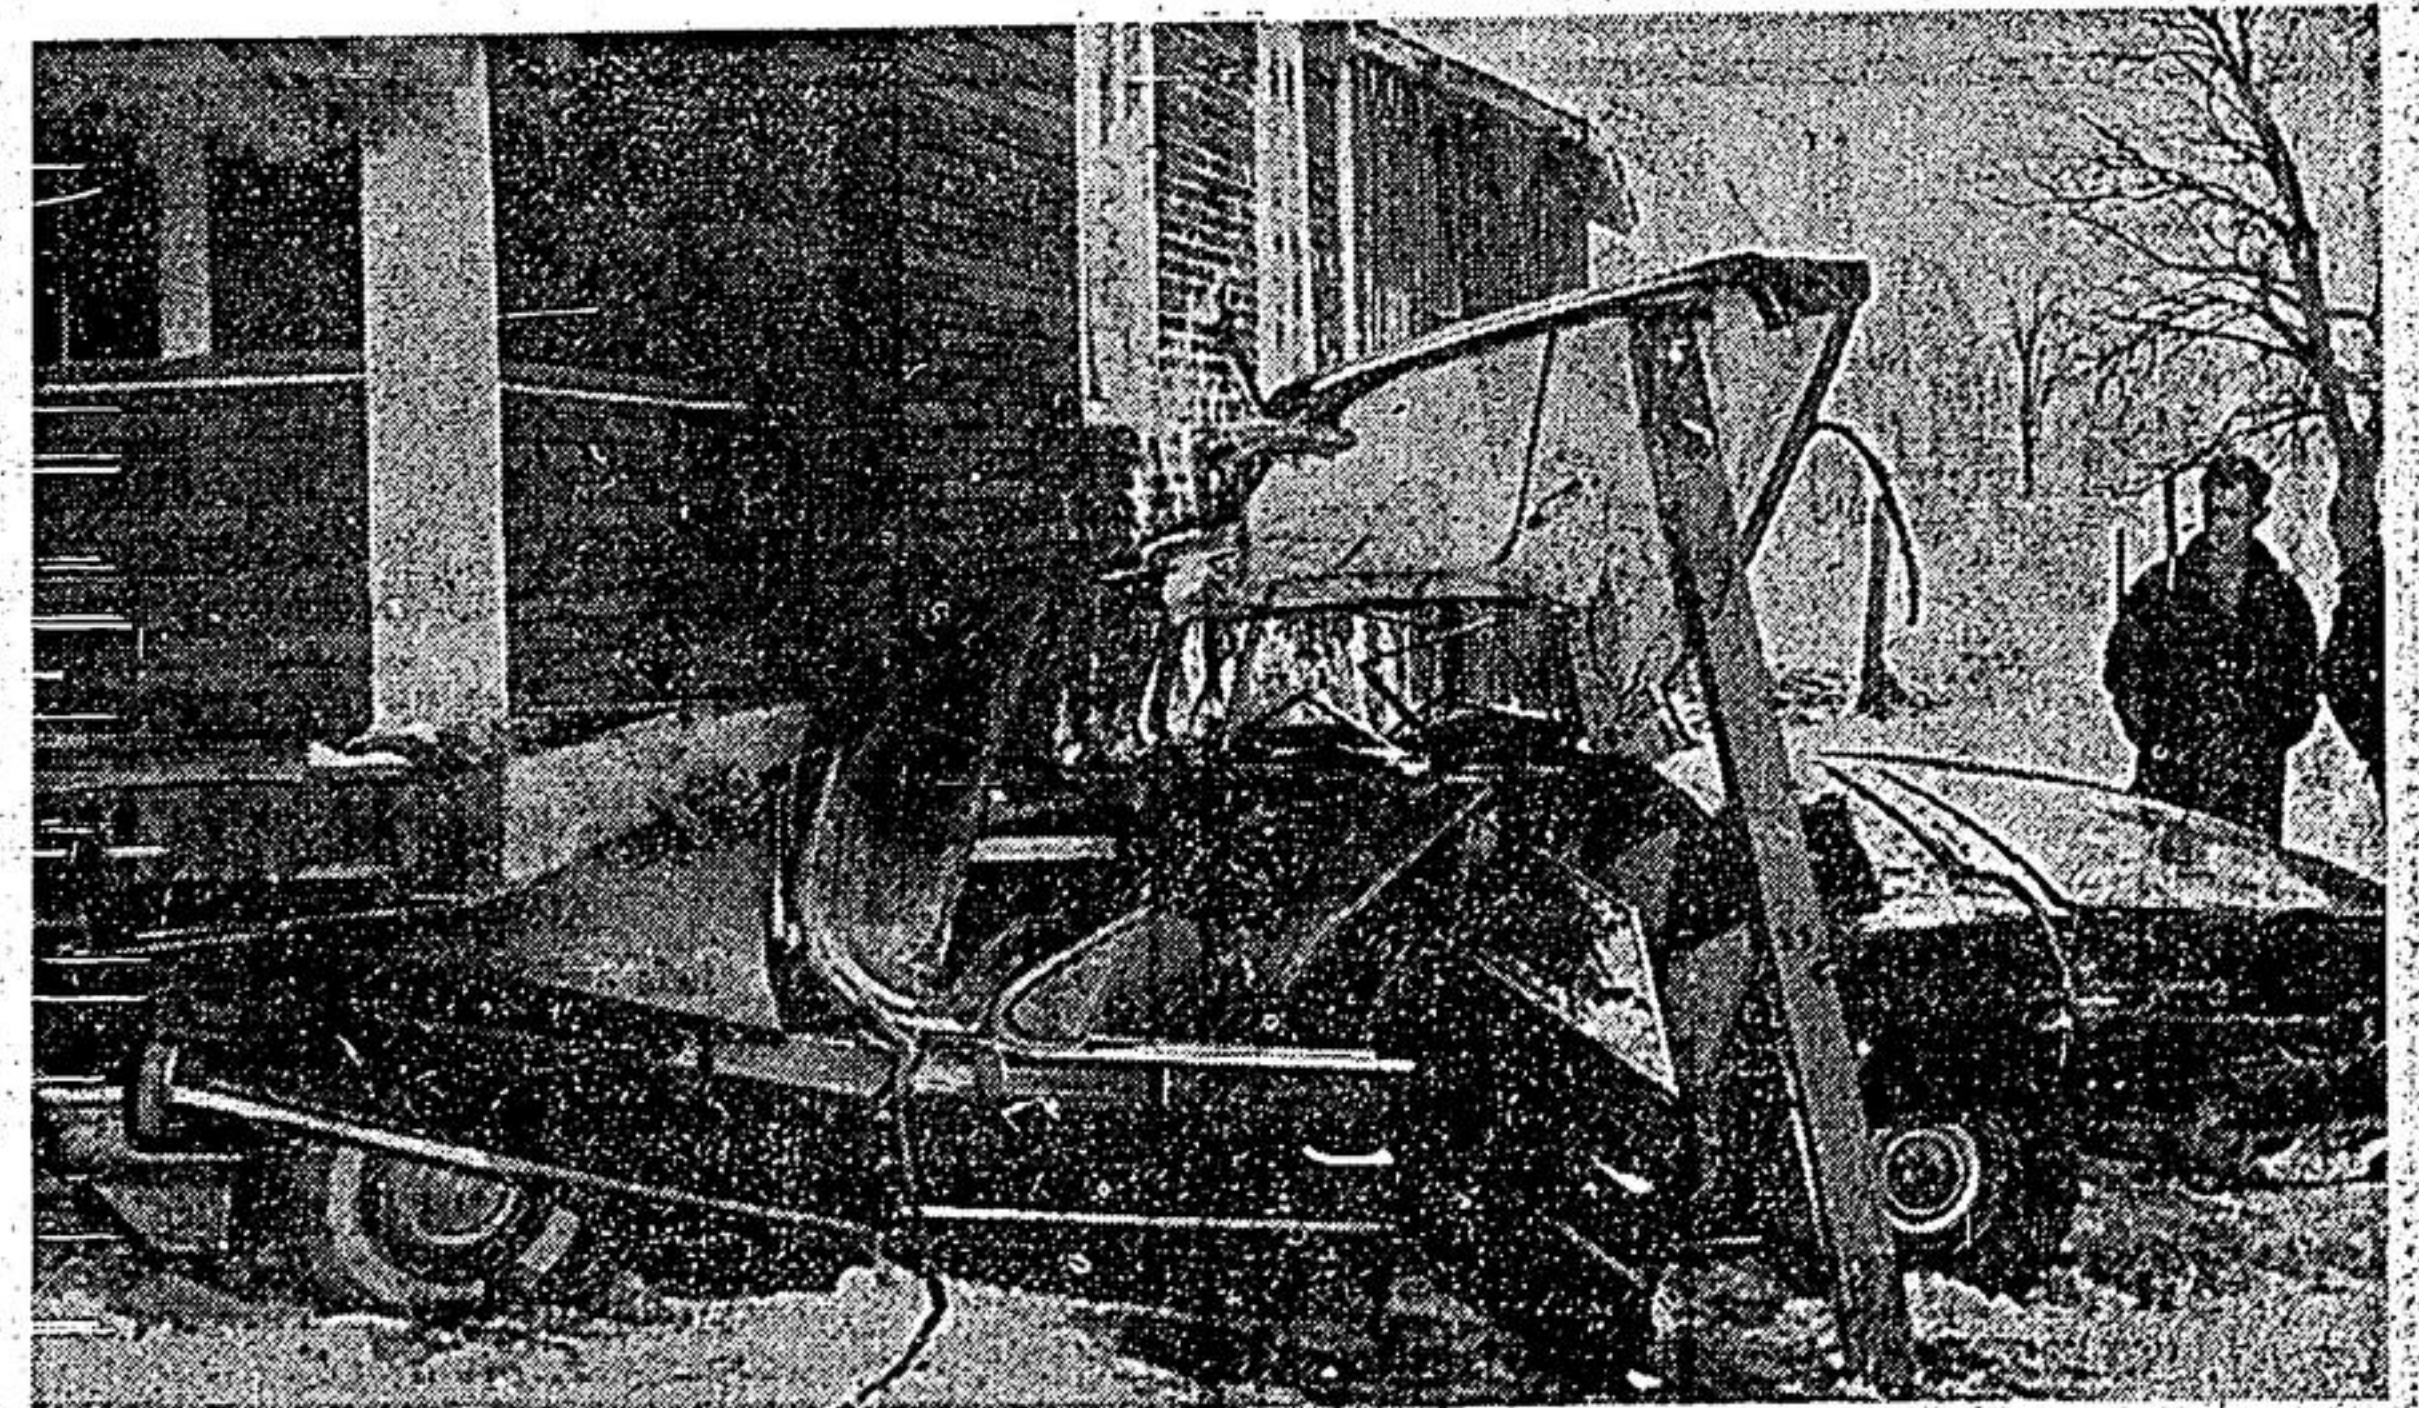

Stouffville's Intermediate Baseball team returns to action, and it's 'out to the game!'

Congregation Vacates Stouffville's Former Anglican Church; Building still for sale at year's end.

Lloyd Johnston, Pickering Twp. Clerk retires

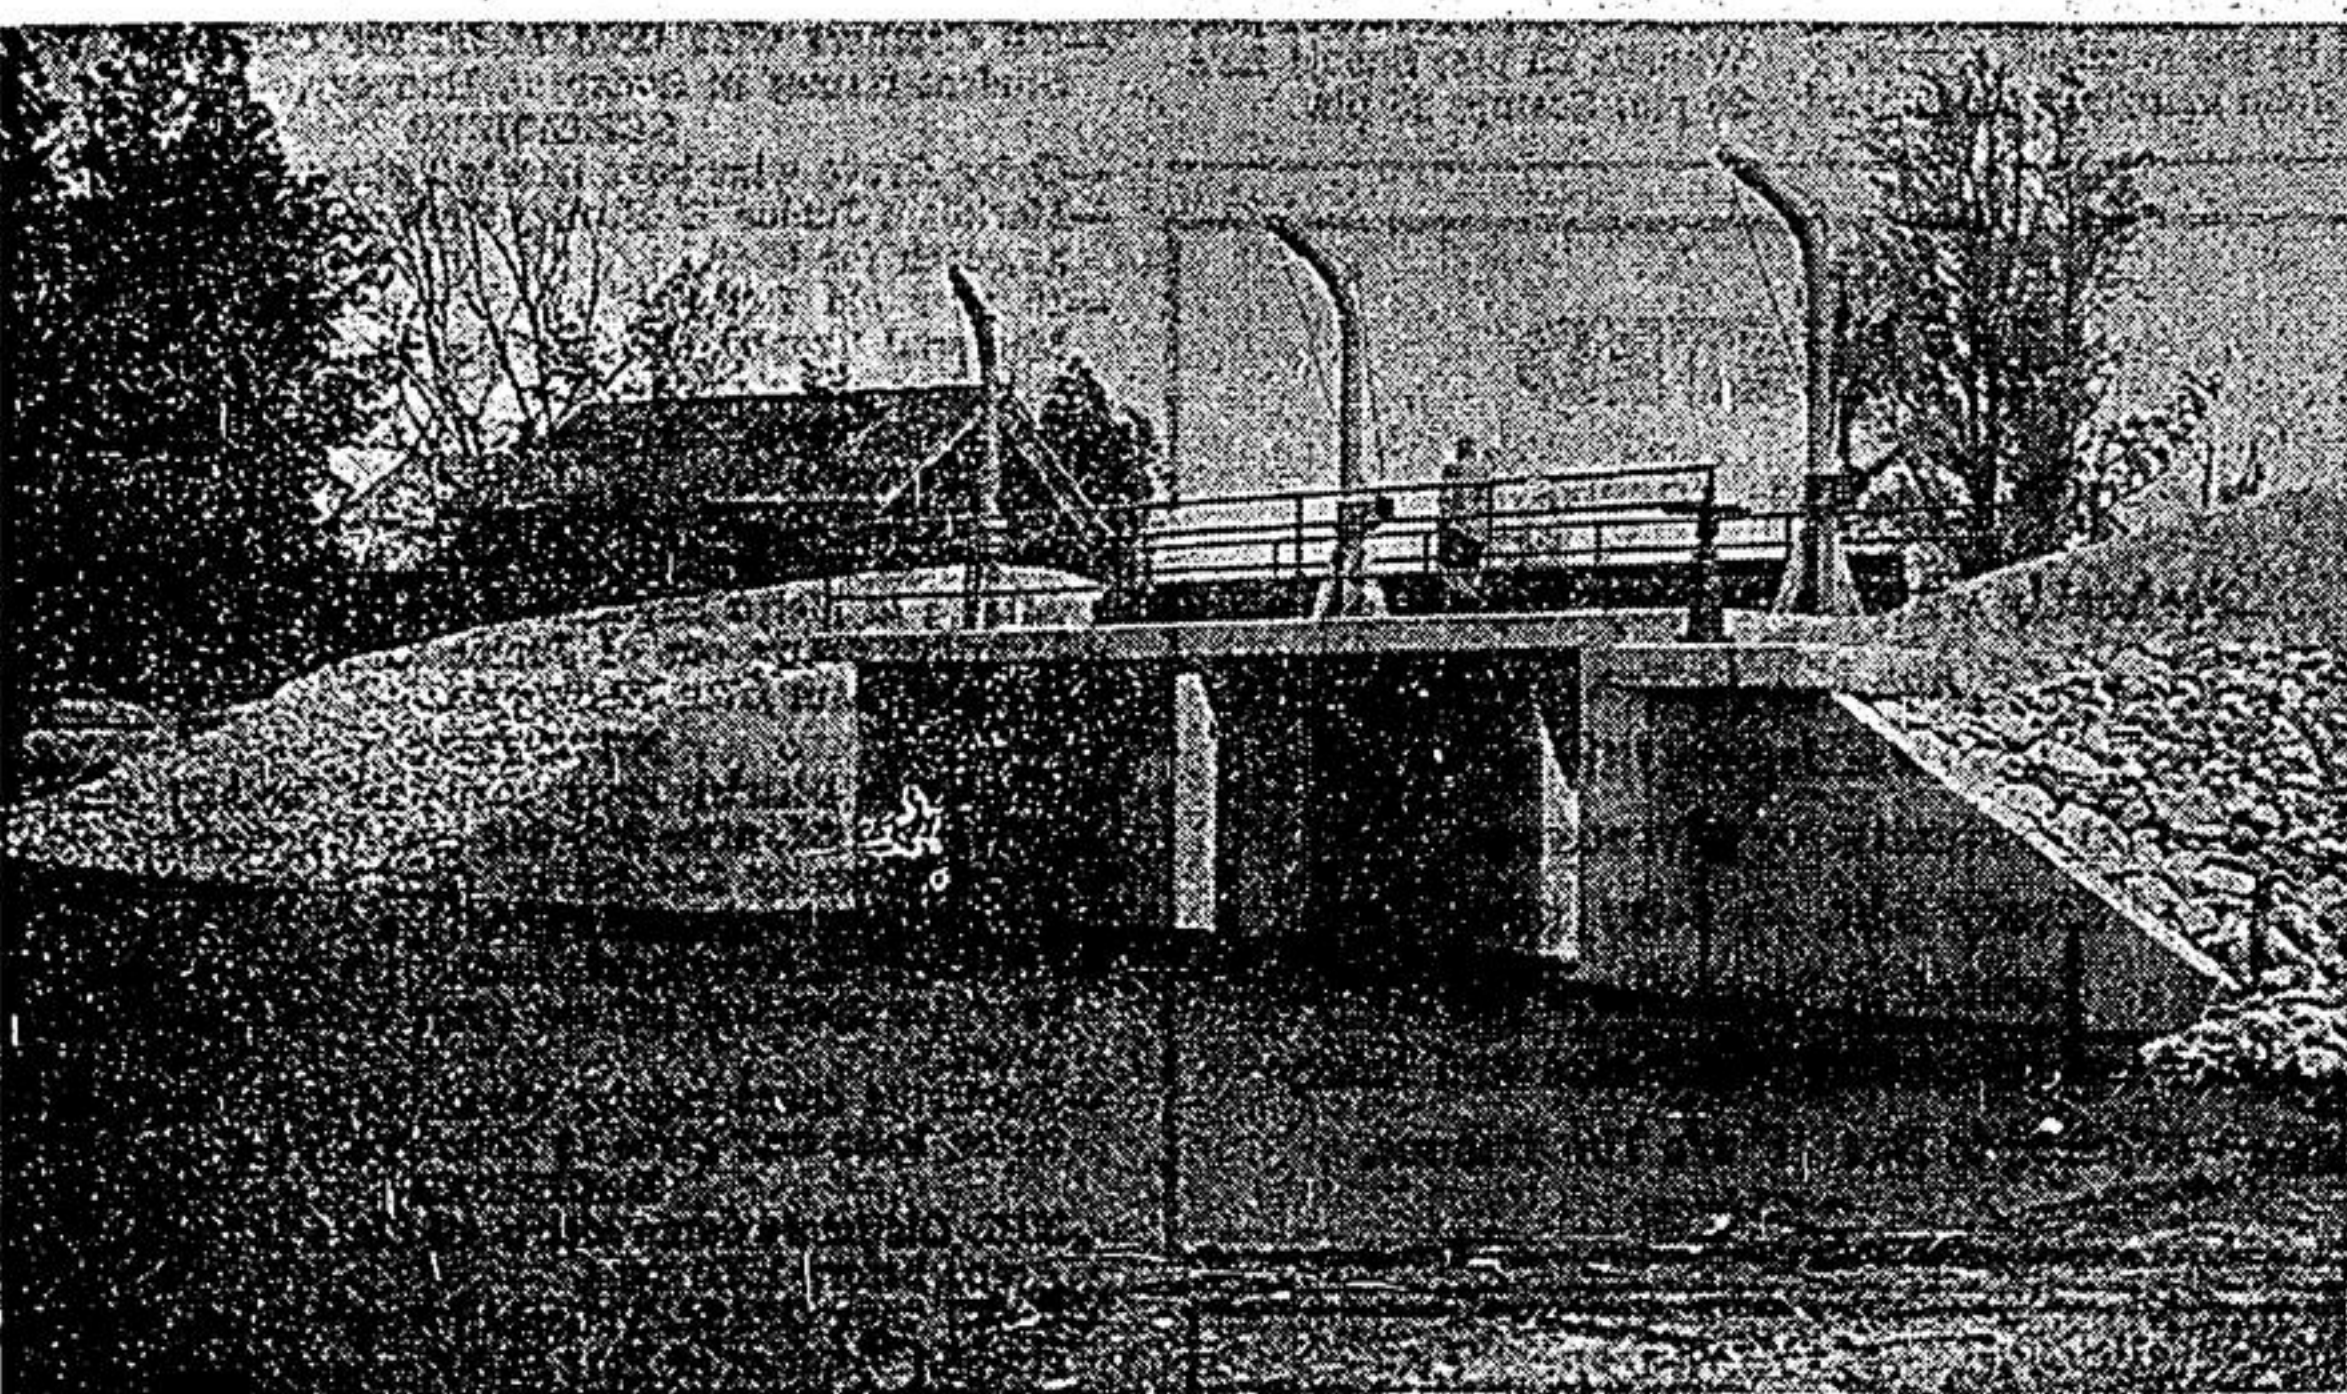

Crash takes life of Glasgow teacher, Miss Jeanette Karantjis, in Ringwood accident.

David Coon, Stouffville's New Magistrate

A. E. Weldon, Former Reeve

New conservation area opened in Markham Township.

