These Brides Chose August

SMITH — HOOD
Amidst a setting of white cushion mums, pink and white gladioli, in Melville United Church on Saturday, August 6, at 3 p.m., the marriage was solemnized of Marilyn June Hood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Hood, R.R.4 Stouffville, and John Archibald Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith of R.R.7 Orillia. Rev. Douglas G. Davis of Stouffville officiated.

Mr. Clarion Baker, R.R.2 Stouffville, was the organist. Miss Joan Whitaker, the soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony and "The Wedding Hymn" during the signing of the register.

Following the processional hymn, "Praise My Soul The King Of Heaven," the bride, wearing a floor length empire gown of white silk faille embroidered with alencon lace and seed pearls on the train and neckline, was given in marriage by her father. Her veil was caught with a cluster of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Matron of honour, Mrs. Glenn R. Thompson of Toronto, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Davidson of Melville and Miss Iris Smith of Scarborough, all wore street length gowns of aqua georgette over taffeta with tiny bows at the empire waistline and matching headpieces. They carried cascades of shaded pink carnations.

Mr. William Smith was best man for his brother, Mr. Clarian Hood, brother of the bride, and Mr. George Smith, brother of the groom, were ushers.

For the reception held in the church hall the bride's mother received the guests, wearing a dress of wedgewood blue lace over taffeta with matching hat and beige accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother chose a turquoise lace dress with matching hat and accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. During the reception the groom's pastor presented the couple with a Bible.

For travelling through New York State, the bride wore a navy dress and coat ensemble with flowered hat and white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses and stephanotis. The couple are now residing in Orillia.

GRAVES — SMITH
Dickson's Hill United Missionary Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, August 6, when Barbara Jean Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Stouffville, was united in marriage with Mr. Alfred Lloyd Graves, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Warren Graves of Mount Albert. The altar was decorated with baskets of yellow gladioli, blue corn flowers and tangerine carnations. Rev. Ronald Paw officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a full floor length gown of tiered chantilly lace, long lily pointed sleeves and scalloped yoke. The tiers of lace and neck line were sprinkled with pearls and sequins. Her cathedral veil of fine nylon tulle was held in place by a coronet of pearls and brilliants. She carried a cascade of red Sweetheart roses.

Maid of honour, Miss Patricia Harwood, and bridesmaid, Miss Carolyn Tindall wore identical empire waistline dresses of street-length honey beige lace over taffeta, accented by a green band and bow. Matching headpieces and shoes completed the ensemble. They carried bouquets of tangerine carnations, and sprays of blue cornflower.

Mr. James Graves, brother of the groom, was best man. Edward Smith, brother of the bride, and Ralph Graves, brother of the groom, were ushers. The organist was Mrs. Earl Elson. Miss Patricia Gibbins sang the Lord's Prayer before the ceremony. Mr. Peter Gibbins joined with his sister in singing the 23rd Psalm during the signing of the register.

The wedding reception was held in the Community Hall at Victoria Square. The bride's mother received the guests wearing a shell pink crepe dress with lace, matching hat and white accessories. Her corsage was pink and rose carnations. Mrs. Robert Walker, sister of the groom, also assisted wearing a pink printed floral silk dress, pink feather hat with white accessories, and corsage of yellow carnations. The happy couple will reside in Kitchener.

For their honeymoon trip to New York State the bride wore a two-piece, yellow crepe suit, with white accessories, and corsage of yellow carnations. The happy couple will reside in Kitchener. Guests were present from Nobleton, Toronto, Orangeville, Mount Albert and Saut Ste. Marie.

HOOPEE — BARRY
Standards of white glads with mums and white glads on the altar decorated St. Patrick's Anglican Church at Willowdale for the wedding of Patricia Francis Barry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Barry of Stouffville and Stephen Norman Hooper of Toronto, son of Mrs. Wm. Hooper and the late Mr. Hooper of St. Catharines at 4 p.m. on Aug. 13. Rev. James A. Tiller was the officiating clergyman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length de-lustered satin sleeveless A-line dress with lace applique, rose pattern, full length coat with bell sleeves and chapel train. She had lace applique on sleeves and bottom of coat. Her veil of tulle was full length. She carried white roses.

Mrs. Marg Abraham of Lindsay was matron of honour and bridesmaids, Mrs. Grace Chisholm, Mrs. Nancy Reid and Mrs. Marg Hannan, sisters of the bride wore floor length wedgewood blue crepe A-line dresses with matching headpieces in pillbox style. They carried white carnations and mums.

Dr. George Lindsay of Simcoe was best man and the ushers were Mr. Paul Barry of Agincourt, Dr. David Kennedy and Mr. Bruce Cordner, both of Toronto. Mr. Ernest Sparling of Toronto was the organist.

The wedding reception took place in the Canadian Court, King Edward Hotel. The bride's mother chose a peacock blue lace dress, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations, while the groom's mother, wore an off-white silk suit, with matching shoes and handbag. A hat of flowers in shades of pink and a corsage of pink carnations completed her outfit.

For travelling to Mexico on their honeymoon the bride wore an ivory silk dupioni dress and jacket with matching shoes, gloves and handbag and a soft orange turban hat.

Guests were present at the wedding from St. Catharines, Toronto, Lindsay and Stouffville. On their return, the happy couple will take up residence in the City Park Apartments, Church St. Toronto.
