Big Changes Ahead

For Family Farms

(Eleventh Of A Series)

By WALT McDAYTER

The relative importance o

cant role in Canada's future, and that our prosperity will be manufacturing, especially secondary manufacturing, of prod-in the markets of the world.

sales of wheat to Russia and overalls of prairie farmers

They stimulated the whole economy: farm machinery manufacturers benefited, as did railways, grain elevator workers, shipping - companies, bankers

But perhaps an even more significant consequence of the wheat sales was the boost in Canadian foreign exchange earnings, which improved our balance of payments with the book of every Canadian.

export trade.

The huge wheat sales came at a time when economists were warning of a slump in our rising prosperity, due to a decreased

Fortunately, dollars flooding in from these grain sales came to the rescue, pumping octane into our economic system, and providing it with increased

Canada's farmers are finding it neighbours delighted us.

The Glee Club sang at Commencements and as-semblies. In April we held sacrifice valuable class time to prepare for a big occasion. As a club we re-our Sounds of Spring.

and brokers!

golden grain.

CANADA'S

CENTURY

special on the Centennial

Confederation

KENNETH

ASKED ME

TO GO

STEADY!

HE WATER SKIS

THERE

EGAD! MY "ORCHIS CARDINALIS")

COKS PALE TODAY-AND THE LEAVES

NO-BUT IT'S VERY

CONTAGIOUS! I'M.

AFRAID YOU'VE

By PAT McCLENNAN of good luck when fine of the Claremont Band. weather is of prime imhoped our luck would Festival a success. We did but we got two perfect ever in 1967. rain polished the park for Monday so it really sparkland twisting smoke against a backgorund of reds and buying gourds, there was of Canada. lots to see and do and a

EVERYBODY WILL BE SO JEALOUS

AND HE'S PRESIDENT

OF OUR CLASS

THIS MAY

ME? GREAT GADFRY!

UNDERSTAND SEVERAL WEEKS

AN IDEA."

AGO ONE OF THEM ACTUALLY HAD

LET GO! WHAT ARE

YOU DOING?

toot from the old steam CEDAR GROVE - Ce- engine could even be heard dar Grove has a reputation over the delightul music And that is Cedar Grove's portance. As usual we Apple Butter Festival for this, a record breaking hold to help make our year. Boiling apple butter Thanksgiving Apple Butter over an open fire in old copper pioneer pots will not expect perfection - be more appropriate than days. An early morning Notes about Neighbours around Newfoundland re- Mr. and Mrs. Whitting ed in the later sunshine. cently, the Petries (John from Elgin Mills and Mr. The coluors were glorious and Bea) took a cargo and and Mrs. Bill Thompson and many a camera re- mail boat and poked from Thornhill also called corded the bubbling butter around all the little ports in after a trip to Woodland inaccessible by road. An Park. interesting. sometimes heartbreaking and always are home again after a From caning chairs to beautiful view of that part honeymoon trip that took

Alan and Ann Hamill Lorne and a return home

SIGH-

THANK YOU

VERY MUCH

REAL THING,

DON'T

BE SILLY!

HOW DO YOU

KNOW,

EMMY LOUS

KENNETH

EMMY LOU

WOULD YOU

GO STEADY

WITH ME?

LOVELY LADIES!

SO BEAUTIFUL-

SO BEAUTIFUL-

TAXI! THE BOTANICAL GARDENS,

SORRY, BUT WE'LL HAVE TO KEEP YOU

QUARANTINED FOR A MONTH!

AND HURRY! IT'S A MATTER

OF LEAF OR DEATH!

HE'S VERY, VERY NICE

HE'LL BE HAPPY

I SEE THE MAHSTER IS ENTERTAINING SOME LADY FRIENDS IN THE

GREENHOUSE!

have now made their home in Guelph while Alan is at University there.

Ginny and Gary Dare were both off over the last long weekend. Ginny to Montreal and Gary to Minden.

Visitors from far and near came to the Festival over Thanksgiving. Among the guests of the Allan Reesors were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Along with a train trip Winger from Caledonia.

> Ivan and Carolyn Reesor them out west to visit

> > ASKED ME!

HE'S VERY "

even before he asked as

ME TO GO STEADY!

HE'S TALKING

ORCHIDS!

MR. BUMBLE, THIS ORCHID OF

THE BOTANICAL GARDENS Y HE'S PROGABLY) WE SHOULD

GOT WHAT

CALLED! J.P. HAS A RARE

SPRAYING HIM EVERY

IS IT F-FATAL?

SEND HIM (ABOUT A

PACKAGE

A GET-WELL

through the States. They are now busy with their new home in Markham.

Lloyd Clendennen flew in on Sunday after a holiday in Scotland and Holland and reports a wonderful time.

Dates to Remember October 14 - meeting in the school about the school. October 17 - Euchre will be held in Cedar Grove shoolhouse. All players welcome.

October 16 - Anniversary Services at Zion Church. 11:15, Mr. Birtch. 7:30 p.m. Mr. Dave McKinley. October 23 - Layman's and the service will be conducted by the laymen. November 2, Saturday 24 UCW Bazaar.

HE ASKED ME!

HE ASKED

HE'S A GOOD

BUTTONVILLE -'twister' cut a narrow path of destruction through parts of Vaughan and Markham Townships. Monday evening, hitting the town of Richmond Hill and communities of Victoria Square, Buttonville and Cedar Grove. On Don Mills Road, a house trailer was caught up in the wind gust and flipped over on its side. The car, driven by John Scott Judson of Scarboro was turned, completely around on the highway. No one was injured and damage was estimated at $150.

Large trees were toppled in several areas and telephone lines were damaged near Milliken.

Need

world market. A healthy balance of payments affects every-Students of Stouffville one. Without it, Canadian dol-High, where is your initialars have to be devalued and tive, your individuality, your sense of responsibilprices on imports have to be increased, which hurts the pocketity, your School Spirit?

Last year, the newly formcd Glee Club gained prestige and recognition through the efforts of two conscientious teachers: Mrs. Gresham and Mr. Smith. The choir became enthuiastic and ambitious. We worked long and hard hours for our choir masters who contributed their time and talent. Some of us, discouraged from singing in public school, found that there was a place for us in the Glee Club and in so doing we received a great deal of satisfaction and enjoyment. We were honoured when churches asked us to sing at their services. Pleasing comments from parents and impossible to earn a decent living from their land. The number of farms in Canada is dropping There are some people who annually, and the farm populatend to write-off farming as an tion is dwindling. Farmers have anachronism in this atomic age. been demanding increased sub-Yet it was not too many years sidies from Ottawa, but experts ago that agriculture was the believe that higher support keystone in the foundation of prices from the federal governour economy. Wheat was the ment would solve little. A major king staple, and the very prosconcern of economists continues perity of Canada was dependent to be the "price spread" - the on the going rate for a bushel of difference between what farm-what consumers must pay. agriculture, admittedly, has de-The answer, some authorities clined. Economists report that it centend, is in better managewill play an even less signifiment of farms. Surveys have shown that many farmers are trying to eke out a living from more and more dependent on soil that is infertile, on blocks of land that are too small to be ucts suitable for export and sale The trend has been towards into irrigation streams. larger farms, and more me-However, agriculture does chanization. Small farmers, unstill contribute considerably to fortunately, cannot afford the our national income, as was huge capital investment redramatically illustrated by the quired for automated farming, series of multi-million dollar and are being gradually forced off their land by the competi-China. These sales did more than just stuff dollars into the

On the prairies, studies are now being made for means to

With this in mind, Saskatchewan and Manitoba have been pressing for the diversion of the Columbia and Fraser rivers from British Columbia over the Rockies and onto the prairies. or turning the Athabasca and Peace rivers into the North Saskatchewan, and to channel it

Whatever the future of farming, one thing is certain. The age of the family farm, the age which did much to build Canada in the century since Confederation, is inexorably drawing to a

Toronto Telegram, News Service - CLIP AND SAVE -

It's the end of the trail for this old wagon, as it sits neglected Despite these sales, many of . and decaying on a foresaken homestead.

ceived special privileges. Last year we heard the Korean Orphan Choir and Handel's Messiah. Now we are preparing for Com-Sometimes we had to mencement and a show to be held in December. Already, we are going ahead with plans for our first full length musical to be held in September '67. We need you! Especially men, for without your voices we shall not be able to go ahead with our plans.

Join now. Add music to your school life and a bar to your sweater.

Mrs. Nelson Mustard Resident Of Markham Township

trice Summerfeldt) who bers of pioneer families. passed away in Stouffville Nursing Home on Saturday, Oct. 1, 1966, had been in failing health for a number of years. She had celebrated her 84th birthday on September 7. Mrs. Mustard was born on the 6th Concession of Markham Township on the farm now owned by Mr. Geo. Elliott. Her parents, Lemuel Summerfeldt

STOUFFVILLE - Mrs. and his wife Margaret

When a young woman she married Nelson Mustard, also a member of a family who settled in the township in 1801. They farmed on the 5th Concession of Markham for a number of years and have always lived within a few miles of their birth place. Her husband predeceased her in February 1944.

Surviving are three

Listowel

Garnet, Markham RR 2; Roy of Unionville: Mary (Mrs. Walter Dunlop) Agincourt and Beatrice (Mrs. Fred Bartlett) of Unionville. A daughter Jean (Mrs. Clarence Wideman) passed away on Oct. 5, 1938. Also surviving are sixteen grandchildren and thirteen great grand chil-

The service was held from daughters and two sons - Dixon's funeral home in Nelson Mustard (Ella Bea- Harper were both mem- Audrey (Mrs. Harry For- Markham on Tuesday, Oct. rester) Unionville RR 1; 4 with interment in Bethesda Lutheran cemetery, North of Unionville. Rev. Wiseman, pastor of the church, officiated and pall bearers were, grandsons Carl and Glyn Forrester, Bruce Mustard, Robert Dunlop and grand son-inlaws, James Mowbray and

Three brothers, George of Queensville, William of Markham, Murray of Toronto and three sisters -Gertrude (Mrs. N. Jagger) Lorne Park, Jean (Mrs. Stuart Duncan) Bethesda and Myrtle (Mrs. Raymond Brillinger) of Mark-. ham also survive; a broth- ... er Gerald of Saskatchewan is deceased:

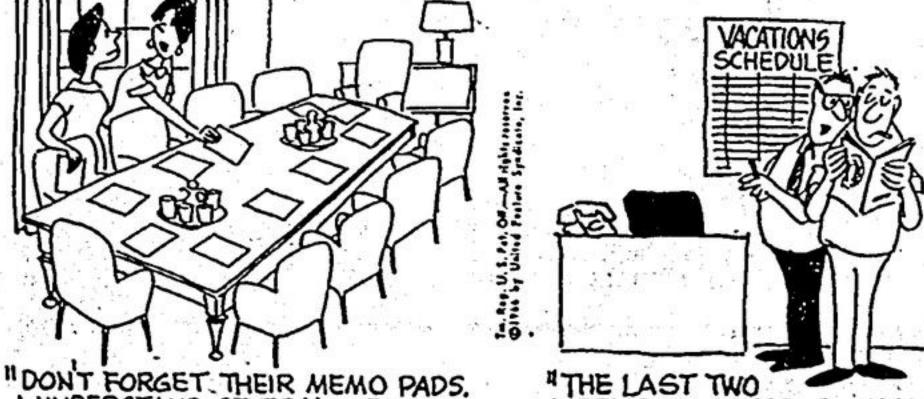

WALT TODD

Every now and again, there is an opportunity to buy an exceptional used car. We have one today. A 1964 Chevrolet Bel Air V8 sedan, License #85835K with automatic and radio. and with only 24,656 true miles. This car was sold and serviced by Giles. If you want truly outstanding value in a used car, call me today at 610-1610, Walt Todd.

GILES CHEV.-OLDS. LTD.

NEVER SAW A BALL GAME IN HER LIFE, SO SHE WINS THE OFFICE POOL THREE WEEKS IN A ROW."

THE LAST TWO WEEKS IN OCTOBER. WHAT DOES THE ALMANAC SAY ABOUT THAT?"

WHEN HE

. COMES IN SMILING AND

HUMMING TO HIMSELF HE

SCARES ME TO DEATH."

DON'T LET US INTERRUPT

INSTALL ANOTHER COMPUTER.

WILSON, WE'RE MERELY

LOOKING FOR A SPOT TO

"J.H.PEABODY SR. TESTING. ONE MILLION DOLLARS, TWO MILLION DOLLARS, THREE--

LISTOWEL - A pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Missionary Church, Listowel, at 2 p.m., September 24, 1966, amid baskets of gladioli, fern and candelabrae.

The bride, Kathleen Ann Heise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heise of R.R.3 Palmerston, was united in marriage to Ronald Bruce Empringham of R.R.2 Gormley, Rev. Arthur Heise of Richmond Hill, uncle of the bride, perthe ceremony, assisted by Rev. Sheldon Wilson of Fordwich. The guest soloist was Mr. Howard Baker of Brampton, accompanied b Miss Leone Wilson of Fordwich at the

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of Duchess satin with rose appliques and matching train. A silk organza rosette headpiece together with lily-of-the-valley held her floor length scalloped veil in place. She carried a cascade of deep pink roses, stephanotis and green ivy.

Miss Tina Van de Kemp of Gorrie was maid of honour. Bridesmaids, Miss Pauline Heise of Kitchener of pink and aqua carnations, and white baby Master Kevin Winger of Maple was bearer for the double ring ceremony. He matched the flower girl in a white suit and carried a heart shaped white satin. cushion. Mr. Ivan Winger and Miss Shirley Heise of Palmerston, sister of the bride, were gowned identin aqua floor length A-line peau de soie with empire bodice and sleeves of matobdice back. Their wed-tire was identical to the bridesmaids in rose peau de soie. Miss Colette Harrison of Toronto was flower girl. She wore a dress of white silk organza with a matching flowered headpiece, and carried a basket ical to the maid of honour ching lace. Matching bows held lace panels which were floor length from the ring headpieces were of matching lace and tulle, and they carried casfeathered mums and aqua carnations. The junior bridesmaids were Miss Lois Empringham of Un-ionville, cousin of the groom, and Miss Beth Ann Wideman of Gormley, cousin of the bride. Their at- of Gormley was best man. Ushers were Mr. Vernon Heise of Palmerston, brother of the bride, and Mr. Ronald Albrecht of Kitchener. Candlelighters were Mr. Merlin Heise of Palmerston and Mr. Jonathan Hill of Toronto. Following the ceremony a reception was held in Kurtzville Community Centre, where the bride's mother received the guests. She wore a teal blue brocaded dress with matching gloves and black accessories. Her corsage was pink sweatheart roses and carnations. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a dusty rose crepe dress, navy accessories. Her corsage was white roses and blue carnations.

The couple left for a trip to Northern Ontario. For travelling the bride chose a grape brocaded suit with a corsage of cream gladioli and fern, and black accessories. On their return they will recade bouquets of white side at R.R.1 Unionville.

Out-of-town guests attended from Wingham, Kitchener, Hamilton, Welland, Fort Erie, New York, Toronto, Maple, Gormley, Richmond Hill and Peterborough.

Main W. - Stouffville