Dismissed

CLAREMONT — A charge of driving while intoxicated, against Robert Redshaw of Claremont, was dismissed in Whitby Court, Tuesday for lack of proof that the accused was the driver.

Ontario Provincial Police Constable Bibeau testified that he saw the accused alight from a car at 2:30 a.m., Sept. 25. Later, the same night, he saw the same man standing beside a wrecked auto on the Brock Road, north of Claremont. The vehicle had hit a tree.

Crown Attorney J. Edward Howell told Magistrate Jermyn that there was no visible evidence that Redshaw had been in control of the car prior to the accident. The auto was completely wrecked and Mr. Redshaw received cuts to his face. He entered a plea of not guilty.
