Head-On Crash

RINGWOOD — A head-on crash between a car and a gravel truck early Friday morning sent a Greenbank man to hospital in serious condition. Injured was William Young, the driver of a southbound auto, who, according to Ontario Provincial Police, turned out to pass and was struck by the northbound truck. Young was rushed to Scarborough General Hospital where his condition is reported as 'poor'.

The truck driver, Basilio Dasilva of Markham Village suffered only minor injuries. The front wheels of his vehicle were torn completely off. The Young auto was demolished.

Famed Sculptor On TV

MARKHAM — Rebecca Sisler, formerly of Unionville and now of Terra Cotta, Ontario, will be a feature guest on C.B.L. TV., Saturday evening, Dec. 24 at 6 p.m.

Miss Sisler, whose fame as a Canadian sculptor has become well-known within recent years, is designing the cenotaph that will be located at the site of Markham's new Centennial Library. The model will be on display when Miss Sisler makes her TV appearance, Christmas Eve.

Life Membership Lemonville U.C.W.

BY MARION WELLS
LEMONVILLE — During the U.C.W. meeting Dec. 14 Mrs. Alfred Hartwick was honored with the pin and certificate of a life membership in the organization. This honor is bestowed from time to time on members who display the call of higher Christian service in home, church and community.

Mrs. Hirsch, president, made a presentation to Mrs. J. Turner of a beautiful red leather bound Bible in recognition of her service as a very efficient secretary for the past year.

Church service Sunday morning at 10 a.m. the sacrament of Holy Communion will be observed. Sunday school is withdrawn to allow families to reach their dinner destinations.

hospital and recovering nicely.

Hillcrest and Lemonville schools will hold their Christmas parties on Thursday afternoon with the pre-schoolers invited to Hillcrest and the parents to Lemonville.

Mrs. Turner is moving to Markham in the new year and Mrs. Anne MacFarlane will take over the books.

Mrs. Unruh has been confined to hospital at Newmarket for surgery. Christmas Eve do plan to join our special candle-light hour with your family at the church, 7:30 p.m. The service is under the direction of Mrs. J. Nauta.
