Trees Live and Bloom in Legends
Almost every kind of tree has a legend relating it to the Nativity or the life of Christ.
The cherry tree says "The Cherry Tree Carol," bent down its boughs for Mary to pluck the fruit. The Glastonbury Thorn blooms at Christmas because, legend says, St. Joseph of Arimathea, on his arrival in England, drove his staff into the ground, while he was carrying the Holy Grail, the chalice used at the last supper. The staff took root and grew into a thorn tree.

Loneliest Day of the Year
For those in prison, Christmas may be the loneliest day of the year. Yet the visits and gifts of Salvationists bring a measure of cheer and comfort — perhaps even the courage to start a new way of life. More than 42,000 men and women in correctional institutions are visited each year by Salvation Army members.

it's Christmas!

May Christmas bring you all the joys of the season and all the warm satisfactions of sincere friendships. We thank you for your generosity during the past year.

Manger Scenes
The setting up of manger scenes of the Nativity has become a popular custom. The idea started in 1223, at Greccio, Italy. St. Francis of Assisi assembled such a scene with real people and live animals. He wanted to make the story of Christ's birth real to his followers. This movement spread through Italy and to other lands, especially in Southern Europe, where manger scenes rather than the Christmas trees formed the center of the holiday observance. In the United States each year more churches, clubs, and homes use displays, both indoor and out. The Moravian family sets up an elaborate Christmas scene - the - "Putz" - which pictures not only the Holy Family, but also village scenes showing the life of the people.

THE YULE LOG

The yule log is an old and honored Christmas tradition. It has almost vanished from our holiday celebration. The Vikings introduced the yule log to Great Britain. They burned it to honor the God Thor. The custom was adopted by the English as part of the Christmas festivities. The very best log that could be found was brought into the house and placed in their large fireplace. The fire was lit and the servants of the house gathered with their master. The coming of Christmas was celebrated with much singing and celebrating. The custom of those days was to celebrate the holiday season twelve full days and the log burned the entire time. At the end of the twelve days any fragments of the log that remained were carefully collected to be used again the following year to kindle the new Yule log.

We wish you a Merry Christmas

All year long, we're grateful for our fine friends and customers. At Christmas, we're especially happy to express our greetings, thanks and good wishes.
