Joyce De Witt Wed In England

At Clent, Worcestershire, the Rev. Gwnfor John, vicar of St. Leonard's Parish Church of England, conducted the marriage of Margaret Joyce De Witt and Christopher Hilton Hassell on December 27. Joyce is the daughter of Mrs. De Witt, Church St. S. and the late G. B. De Witt. Mr. and Mrs. Hilton M. Hassell of Port Credit are the parents of Christopher. The bride was given in marriage by a friend of the family, Mr. John M. G. Wright of Swithland, Leicestershire. The evening ceremony in the church was followed by a reception dinner at Sunfield Home, Clent Grove, and a music program presented by staff members of the school. In 1964 Joyce had been in Sunfield's Teacher-Training Course for workers with Exceptional (Retarded) Children. Last year she attended London Ontario, Teachers' College and then returned to England. Christopher is a recent graduate of Western University, obtaining his B.A. in Psychology. They will be remaining in the Midlands for a short time assisting at the school. During the wedding reception the bride's mother visited the couple by telephone. They had received cables and a radio message recently, as well as phone calls from several Ontario friends and relatives extending their good wishes.
