NOW 1,000 MORE READERS

Than in January 1966

Greatest 12-month increase in 78-year history

One thousand more persons are reading The Tribune now than were doing so last January. This is the largest increase in readership the paper has ever enjoyed in a 12-month period.

More homes in Whitchurch, Markham, Uxbridge and Pickering, are served by The Tribune than any other newspaper.

WE'RE PLEASED

We at The Tribune are pleased that you the readers are pleased. A year ago we set out to present to you The Tribune's extensive news coverage in a more attractive manner. We came up with a larger page, a new and more readable news dress, more pictures, color, new headings, and the paper departmentalized for your convenience. This process of improvement and modernization will continue.

ADVERTISERS BENEFIT

Advertisers are reaping extensive benefits by The Tribune's enlarged readership — their advertising dollar value has increased. With The Tribune, advertisers can be sure — these are not off-the-cuff figures, but Audited by the organization of ABC which handles such work for the most prominent papers in the country.
