Women's Tribune

Corporal and Mrs. David Charles Forsyth are pictured here following their recent marriage in Stouffville. The bride is the former Jacklyn Susan Abraham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Abraham, Ninth Line North. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Forsyth, Boyer Street.

Newlyweds To Germany

STOUFFVILLE - A pretty wedding took place at the home of Rev. Douglas Davis on December 23, 1966 at 7 o'clock when Jacklyn Susan Abraham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Abraham, RR. 2, Stouffville and Corporal David Charles Forsyth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Forsyth, also of Stouffville, exchanged marriage vows.

The bride looked charming in a full length gown of organza taffeta with a lace bodice and carried a cascade of red roses. Mrs. Margaret Abraham, sister-in-law of the bride, was her matron of honor, and Mr. Fred Abraham, brother of the bride, was the best man.

Receiving at the reception, held at the Yangtze Pagoda, the bride's mother looked lovely in a turquoise dress; white accessories and a white corsage. The groom's mother chose a beautiful cherry red suit, red hat, white accessories and a red and white corsage.

Following the reception friends and relatives were entertained at the bride's home.

For going away, the bride looked lovely in a sky-blue suit with matching accessories, and a January 5 for Germany where they will reside for at least a year.

Naval Bride and Groom To Reside In Nova Scotia

MELVILLE - Melville United Church was the setting for the wedding on Saturday, January 7, at 3 o'clock, when Elsie Sara Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Smith, 60 Church Street, Stouffville and Able Seaman Richard White of Halifax, Nova Scotia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Urwin White of Vancouver, B.C., were united in marriage by Rev. Douglas Davis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length gown of white lace over taffeta with a headpiece, a tiara of white miniature flowers. She carried red roses, white carnations and lily of the valley with white satin streamers and rose buds.

Eleanor Smith, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid. She wore emerald green velvet with matching head piece and carried yellow and white mums.

The pews were marked with lily of the valley and anchors tied with white satin ribbon.

The best man was Mr. Earl Elson of Stouffville and the ushers were Don Taber and Jim Jones.

Mrs. Shirley Elson was the organist. She also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Florence Williams.

For the wedding reception held in Melville Church Hall, the bride's mother received her guests in a two piece gold and brown jacket dress with matching accessories. After spending a few days at the bride's home, the happy couple returned to Halifax where the bride took up duties at HMCS Stadacona and the groom on HMCS Nipigon. They will reside at Dartmouth, Nova Scotia.

Guests were present from Aurora, Heyden, Tyrone, West Hill, Stouffville, Ottawa, Halifax and St. John, New Brunswick.

Form Heart Chapter

STOUFFVILLE - Prompted by the number of heart attack cases in the Stouffville area, a Heart Chapter has been formed here, following the lead of sponsors in Markham Village and Unionville. An organization meeting was held at the home of Gordon Colburn, Glad Park Avenue, Tuesday night.

Rules For Beard-Growing Contest

STOUFFVILLE - Stouffville's centennial beard-growing contest is now in full swing but there's still plenty of time to enter. The chairman is Jim Brazier and the rules are: (1) To be eligible, register your name and address at the Stouffville Municipal Office. (After hours, contact the chairman, 106 Hawthorne Avenue). (2) Entrants must reside in the Stouffville area; that is, have a 640-telephone number or work in town. (3) Penalty for registered contestants who shave prior to July 1 will be $5 or the guilty party must sit for two hours in a rocking chair, clad only in long underwear, in the category of a Main Street store. (4) The only category for boys under 21 years will be 'the neatest beard under 21'. The other categories will be listed at a later date.

Judging will be done at the centennial celebrations on July 1. Each entry will receive a badge to wear during the contest when they are available. Further announcements will be published in The Tribune when finalized.
