

Clippers Battle For Playoff Berth

STOUFFVILLE — The Stouffville Clippers are fighting Lindsay for a playoff spot and their 6-2 win over Lakefield Tuesday night increases their chances.

Two goals by Wayne Colley and Geoff Gaston put Stouffville ahead 3-0 in the first. Richard Crawford tallied for Lakefield in the second but it was nullified by Robin Hood's goal on passes from George Shepherd and Evan Downing.

Murray Bell for Lakefield and Glen Hart traded goals before Ken Aida took a pass from Dan Pettit and scored on a rush from centre-ice.

Goalie Mike Willoughby is credited with saving the game for Stouffville blocking several labelled drives.

Unionville Rink Wins

R. S. McLaughlin Bonspiel

UNIONVILLE — The Unionville rink of Bob Lawrie met the host club entry of Jack Elliott in the finals of the Oshawa Curling Club's annual R. S. McLaughlin Bonspiel and emerged the winners, 15-6 in 10 ends.

Harvey Acton of Uxbridge edged out Ed Rhodes of Avonlea, 10-9 to take the Oshawa Times trophy. Russ St. John, Stan Cain, Murray Taylor and Harvey Acton made up the Uxbridge foursome.

Bob Lawrie's rink, including Harold Carey, Jack Watson and George Rum-ney, led 12-1 at the half-way mark and a three-count on the eighth end decided the championship.

Three Unionville rinks and the host rink reached the semi-finals. Len McMullen lost 9-8 to Jack Elliott when his last stone, a draw to the button, stopped three inches short. Ken Betz, Jack Shadlock and Ken Roberts made up the entry.

The rink of Bill Hood, Carl Sellers, "Bun" Sellers and Don VanLuven, lost 11-5 to Bob Lawrie's foursome.

Mr. Don Summerfeldt and Mrs. Barbara McPhee attended the Costume Skating Party at Markham Arena celebrating Sir John A. Macdonald's Birthday. Mrs. McPhee's emerald green skating costume helped capture the prize as United Empire Loyalists.

Juveniles Await Playoffs

STOUFFVILLE — Jake Harman's Stouffville Juveniles ended their regular schedule on a winning note this week, edging Lindsay 4-3. The team will now await word on who they will meet in the first round of playoffs. In regular games they had a 4 and 4 record.

Stouffville spotted Lindsay a 2-0 lead in the first period, evened the count in the second and won it in the third, Pete Turner fired the game-winning teaming up with Dave Ferguson for a picture goal. Blair Waggl with two and Eric Hamilton were the other Stouffville marksmen.

Kent Winterstein turned in a fine effort for Stouffville and Larry Norton was a star on defence. Dave Ferguson collected three points, picking up assists on three of his teams' four tallies. Single assists also went to Jim Lamoreaux, David Glover and Turner.

Stouffville Rinks In O'Keefe Tourney

STOUFFVILLE — Stouffville mixed rinks are currently sweeping a path towards the Rose Bowl at Woodbridge next month and the O'Keefe Cup at Quebec City in March. Club winners here advance to Division Five playoffs at Pickering Curling Club on February 8 when 27 rinks from Bowmanville to Scarborough will compete.

Sixteen divisional winners will be paired for elimination to be held at Cumberland, Sunderland, Oshawa, Avonlea, Sherwood Park, Mount Hope, Stratford and Highland Clubs February 13 to 19. This will be a best two in three games contest in each case, providing eight finalists for the Rose Bowl. The Ontario Mixed Championship itself, the eighth Rose Bowl competition, will be held at the Board of Trade Club in Woodbridge, February 23, 24 and 25, with the winner receiving the O'Keefe Trophy and Ontario's berth in the National Mixed Championship. The National Mixed for the O'Keefe Cup will be held at Quebec Winter Club, March 13-18.

Another entry from Stouffville included a rink skipped by Robert Sellers along with Dixie Sellers, Walter and Aurelia Smith.

STOUFFVILLE — A Stouffville rink, skipped by Elmer Farthing, was a winner in a 12-team curling bonspiel at Cannington, Saturday. Other members include Eleanor Crossen and Gerry and Norma Brillinger. The foursome received several other lovely prizes.

Markham Sub Net-Minder Earns Shut-Out Victory

MARKHAM — Woodbridge 'Rangers' visited Markham Arena Jan. 13 and 437 fans turned out to watch Markham 'Seal-A-Wax' hand them a 7-0 drubbing.

SUB GOALIES — Neither team regarded the game as very important as both used substitute netminders. Jim Douglas earned a shutout in his first time in goal this season. Brian Frame, for Woodbridge, made some fine saves but still let in six Markham shots before he was replaced in the second period. Pete Barnes and John Hurst were also brought up to fill gaps in the Woodbridge lineup.

Regular goaltender Bob McKeraghan came in and Rick Kessell's second goal of the game dropped over his arm at 13:37 of the second period.

KESSLER LEADS — Kessell led the Markham scorers with two goals and two assists and Dennis Milroy picked up three points for assists. Rick Howie and Brad Davidson each had one goal and one assist. Barry Hawton turned in a two goal performance.

Rick Jordan tallied the remaining Markham marker.

Woodbridge occupies the bottom rung of the Metro Junior B ladder while Markham stands third.
