

Seek New Minister At Brown's Corners

By JEAN LEAF
BUTTONVILLE — Members of the Brown's Corners Church pastoral committee are seeking a minister for the church, which will become a one-point charge at the end of June. Last Sunday committee members visited Bloordale and Westmoreland United Churches in Toronto, and on Thursday evening two ministers visited Brown's Corners church and talked with committee representatives.

Rhea McQuay spent three weeks with Mrs. James McQuay and other relatives during the holiday season, and on their way home to California will visit Mr. Graves' relatives in Iowa.

Kathy Jones is able to be out again after an attack of scarlet fever.

The second game of the winter euchre series will be played at Buttonville W.I. Community Hall on Friday evening, Jan. 20, at 8.30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hood, Mrs. S. J. English, Mrs. Wm. Rodick, Miss Mary Rodick and Miss Rhea Scott attended a 25th wedding anniversary reception for Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Devey on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Devey is the former Phyllis Paget, daughter of Mrs. George Paget and the late Mr. Paget. Among the other guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Boynton and Miss Ellen Boynton.

Mrs. Henry Pieterse took over duties as president of Brown's Corners United Church Women in January, and chaired the first meeting of the year. Former president Mrs. H. Steffler is now the group secretary. Mrs. Elmore Hill and Mrs. John Brown conducted the devotional service and Mrs. Joan Hooper sang two solos to commemorate Centennial Year, 1966 was an active year for the group, and the treasurer, Mrs. Norman Reid, reported approximately $2,900
