

Storm Cuts Choir to Two Members

By JEAN LEAF
 BUTONVILLE — Sunday morning attendance at Brown's Corners United Church was limited to those who were mobile and choir members were scarce. Jack Gough and Mrs. Joan Hooper were equal to the emergency and sang a duet. Graham Scott preached the sermon.

The irony! Last Saturday morning in the midst of a blizzard that was scarcely penetrable I picked up my mail and found a cheerful card from Florida, bearing the tidings: "The flowers here are gorgeous. This morning Libby had gathered bowls of fresh camellias for the lounge and breakfast table." Ah well, like the man said — "If winter comes, can spring be far behind."

The ladies for miles around will be glad to learn that a Mill Ends warehouse was opened Wednesday of this week at Don Mills Road and Highway No. 7, where the Brown's Bread depot used to be. Word is that there are some very good remnants to be had, for those who are handy with a needle.

The Reg. Allen family spent a pleasant weekend. It was Mrs. A's birthday, and she was guest of honour at two dinner parties given by her daughter Sue Gohn and Betty Goodman.

The storm last weekend blocked a good many lanes and kept citizens at home. Those who did venture out found townships roads badly drifted. On Highway No. 7 at the 5th concession near the Champanion farm there were four traffic pile-ups involving twelve cars in three and a half hours. At 12-13 p.m. there were four cars in one melee and three in another. Two of the drivers were Jim Grainger of Richmond Hill and Bill Reeve of John Street, R.R.2, Gormley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stephenson were proud parents last Friday when their son Glen received the Most Valuable Player Award for the Unionville Novice Jets. The team played Bradford, and afterward the president of the Robin Hood Oats Co. presented Glen with a plaque, a crest for his sweater, and the trophy with his name engraved on it. According to a Unionville hockey official it is good sportsmanship and good team play which wins the award.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wilson and Larry of Orangeville were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson last Sunday.

Don and Dorothy Reesor were pleased to have John Gower as a dinner guest last week. John, who has been in Egypt with the army, was in Markham for his mother's funeral.

It was a delightful evening at the Inn on the Park last Thursday evening when a dinner was held, sponsored by the Markham Centoph Committee and service clubs. Rear Admiral W. M. Landymore was the guest speaker, and Miss Rebecca Sissler, the sculptress who has been commissioned to sculpt the Centennial piece, was among those present. Butonville guests included Mrs. A. Shenfield, Alf Shenfield and Mr. Ted Shenfield, Mrs. A. W. Miller, Mrs. F. H. Leaf and Miss Lynda Leaf.

Mrs. Elmore Hill had a delightful surprise last Thursday, Feb. 23, on her 76th birthday. In the afternoon she was guest of honour with Mrs. Wm. McGimpsey at a surprise party in Butonville W.I. Hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Kenneth Stots and Mrs. John Wilkins and guests were members and friends from the Butonville W.I. and the neighbourhood. Also present were two of Mrs. Hill's daughters, Mrs. Bruce Robinson of Thornhill and Mrs. Eric Charity of South Porcupine who came especially for the birthday celebrations. Mrs. McGimpsey's daughter, Mrs. Boustead was a guest too.

Following an afternoon of eucire when Mrs. Milton Sherman, Mrs. H. R. Paterson and Mrs. Charles Hooper were prize winners, refreshments were served and the birthday girls were presented with silver maple leaf centennial pins and chrysanthemums.

In the evening Mrs. Robinson held a family party for her mother.
