Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

KING CITY — Saturday, March 11, was a happy occasion for Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Boyd of King City. The well-known and highly respected couple celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary and their bungalow residence on Clearview Heights was the scene of many pleasant reunions, both during the afternoon and evening.

The living room was decorated with many lovely cards and a beautiful bouquet of fifty golden roses, a gift from the family, held a prominent position where the couple received their guests.

FAMILY OF SEVEN
Mr. and Mrs. Boyd were married March 8, 1917. Mrs. Boyd was the former Ruby Irene Batt and the ceremony was conducted by Rev. Archibald McNeil at the bride's home, lot 21, concession 9, Markham.

Following their marriage, they lived for four years in Alberta, then returned to Markham where they rented a farm. In 1929 they purchased a farm at concession 6, Markham Township, where they remained until 1961. They have lived in King City since that time.

They have lived in King City since that time. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd were pleased to receive a personal telephone call from their daughter, Bertha, direct from West Germany. Congratulations were also received from Prime Minister L. B. Pearson; Honorable John Diefenbaker; Premier John Robarts; Major A. A. 'Lex' Mackenzie, M.P.P., York North; Mr. John Addison, M.P. York North and Reeve Gordon Cook, King Township.

The Tribune joins with the many friends, relatives and former neighbors in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Boyd many more years of health and happiness together.
