Expansion For Sleepy Hollow Facilities

STOUFFVILLE — Sleepy Hollow Golf and Country Club will officially open for another season in less than a month, and extensive changes are planned, particularly for the clubhouse.

A contract has been awarded for a large extension on the dining-room which will give patrons a commanding view of the first tee and fairway. A new outside entrance is to be provided to permit the closing of the room entirely for private functions. The main dining-room will now accommodate 175 persons. Kitchen facilities are also to be extended.

Hundreds of additional trees have been planted around the course and tons of fertilizer are now doing their work: as the snow melts. Work will also be completed on the 7th, 12th, 13th and 14th holes.

Centennial Medals To mark Centennial Year, it is planned that suitable medals will be awarded in the various 1967 competitions. Plans are being made for a Centennial Invitational Pro-Am tournament to be held late in June or July.

Professional Fred Swarbrick and Mrs. Ollie Swarbrick will again attend the pro shop and Mr. Gunther Merk will return as clubhouse manager.
