St. Andrew's Markham, Appoints New Pastor

MARKHAM — The Rev. Donald H. Parr, B.A., B.D., Minister of Highlands United Church in Edmonton, Alberta has been called to the pulpit of St. Andrew's United Church in Markham. He is expected to take up his new duties in August. Rev. Parr will succeed Rev. Albion Wright, who has been appointed Executive Director of the United Church Cedar Glen Conference Center, effective July 1st.

Meeting on Sunday evening, April 9, the congregation of St. Andrew's voted unanimously to call Mr. Parr upon hearing the report of their Pastoral Relations Committee, presented by the Chairman, Mr. Ivan Allen. York Presbytery was represented at the meeting by Rev. Norman Pick of Newmarket.

Rev. Parr was born in Chatham, Ontario. He obtained his early education in Dresden, Niagara Falls, Ingersoll and Essex. His father, the late R. H. Parr, was a Minister of the United Church. A graduate of Victoria University and Emmanuel College, Rev. Donald Parr began his ministry, upon ordination in 1953, at Empress, Alberta. He was called from Empress to Northminster Church in Calgary, where he served 8 years prior to moving to Highlands Church in Edmonton.

Mr. Parr is presently chairman of Edmonton North Presbytery and is a past chairman of Calgary Presbytery. He has helped initiate new church ventures, including the Institute of Pastoral Counseling in Calgary and Mutchmor House, a rehabilitation center in Calgary. He is presently involved in a project to provide a Residence for Indian children seeking an education in Edmonton. He was among United Church representatives attending the First National Convention on Family Life sponsored by the National Council of Churches in the United States. He is a member of the Board of Governors of St. Stephen's Theological College and Chairman of the Alberta School of Religion.

Mrs. Parr is a native of Toronto. There are three children, Catherine, Donna and David.

St. Andrew's Congregation have expressed their intention to continue to develop a multiple ministry in the future. The congregation now serves 800 families, the membership exceeds 1,000. Plans for the future include the establishment of a Pastoral Counseling Institute in cooperation with neighboring congregations.
