HISEY — HUTCHINSON
STOUFFVILLE — Second Markham Baptist Church was the scene of a lovely wedding May 20, at 2 p.m. when John Samuel Hisey, youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Hisey and Ruth Anne Hutchinson, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hutchinson were united in marriage. The groom's father officiated.

The bride, given away by her father, was dressed in a gown of white peau de soie and lace made in Empire lines with a fan-shaped train. Her shoulder-length veil was caught by a crystal flowered comb, and she carried white carnations, shasta daisies and trailing ivy. She wore the groom's gift, a strand of cultured pearls.

Her maid of honour was her sister, Miss Francie Hutchinson, dressed in sapphire blue peau de soie and brocade Empire style dress. Two bridesmaids, Doris Hutchinson and Jenette Baker were dressed in similar gowns of azure blue. They carried shasta daisies in crescent bouquets and a daisy chain.

The groom was attended by his brother Paul. The ushers were Dave Hisey and Phil Hutchinson.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Doris Ratcliff, Mrs. Mary Hutchinson, the bride's aunt sang two lovely solos.

The reception was held at the Parkside Christian Youth Centre where the bride's mother received in a pale blue suit trimmed with crystals and pearls. She wore a matching blue flowered hat. The groom's mother wore a flowered suit with pink accessories. It was unique in that attendance were three grandmothers and a grandfather. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Farmer, Mrs. Susan Hutchinson and Mrs. Gertrude Broad.

Guests were present from Toronto, Barrie, Tillsonburg, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and St. Catharines. The reception speeches were ended by a short message from Rev. Gordon Scarle, of St. Catharines, who gave the young couple Psalm 127:1, "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it," as a wedding verse.

The happy couple left for Caltanoga, Tennessee and Florida, the bride travelling in a cherry colored suit with matching accessories. They will reside in Scarborough.

IRELAND — FOSDICK
STOUFFVILLE — White lilies decorated Stouffville United Church for the wedding of Shirley Eleanor Fosdick, daughter of Mrs. Edward Fosdick and the late Mr. Fosdick of Stouffville and William Douglas Ireland of Brockville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ireland of Toronto on Saturday, June 3, 1967 at 3 o'clock. Rev. Alan Borland officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Leonard Horstall, the bride chose a gown of white Swiss faille with a chapel train and a bodice of Guipure lace. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a coronet of faille trimmed with the Guipure lace. She carried white roses and lily of the valley.

Matron of honour, Mrs. Ralph Mills and bridesmaids, Mrs. Murray Ferguson, sister of the bride and Mrs. Ian Malloch, sister of the groom, wore street-length gowns of blue shantung with matching headpieces. They carried white chrysanthemums and blue cornflowers.

Mr. David Steel was best man and the ushers were Mr. Christopher Ireland, brother of the groom, and Mr. Lawrence Van Groenigen. Mr. David Crawford was the organist. Mr. Neil Douglas sang the Wedding Prayer during the ceremony and O Perfect Love during the signing of the register.

The wedding reception was held at The Guild Inn, Scarborough. The bride's mother received the guests wearing a beige silk linen suit with a flowered hat and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother chose a turquoise crepe dress, matching straw hat and a rose corsage.

For travelling to the East Coast the bride wore a blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. The happy couple will reside in Brockville.

Choir Practice
The centennial service choir will hold practices on Tuesday, June 20 and June 27 prior to the open-air worship in the Stouffville Park, Sunday, July 2. Practices are conducted at the Parkside Youth Centre.

DAWSON — AMUNDSEN
STOUFFVILLE — Reverend Alan Borland officiated at a pretty wedding in the Stouffville United Church May 20 when Inger Johanne Amundsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Richard Amundsen of Porsgrunn, Norway was united in marriage to Mr. Gerard Allan Dawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dawson, Clarendon, R.R. 3.

Given in marriage by her cousin, Rolf Kvamme, the bride looked lovely in a beautiful white gown. She carried matching white roses. The bridesmaids, Penny Cutting, Newmarket; June Kvamme, Georgetown; Dawn Pirie, Toronto and Marilyn Goble, London wore matching shrimp chiffon gowns and carried white carnations and coral roses. Nieces, Lisbeth and Vicky Anderson were also attendants in gowns of green chiffon. Randy and Ricky Dawson, brothers of the groom were ringbearers. Ted Swain, Wayne Jeffrey and Yorko Mulkevitch were ushers. The best man was Mr. Donald Goble of London.

Following a honeymoon trip to Expo and New York State, the happy couple have taken up residence in Montreal. The groom is a graduate of Stouffville Dist. High School and on May 30 received his Bachelor's Degree in Applied Science from the University of Toronto.
