

Cemetery Grounds Beautifully Decorated For Sunday Service

The annual Decoration Day service was conducted in the Stouffville Cemetery Sunday afternoon. The entire grounds as well as individual plots attracted much favorable comment from visitors.

Members of the Stouffville Branch of the Canadian Legion attended the service. Many former comrades are buried here. Rev. Arthur Walsh conducted the worship with special music by soloist Mr. J. H. Rehill.

Women's Tribune

STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's Going On

Friends of Mr. George Allison, formerly of Stouffville and now of Uxbridge, R.R.1, will be pleased to know that he has been released from hospital and is convalescing at home. Mr. Allison suffered a severe heart attack, May 9.

Wilbur G. Bennett Suddenly, on Monday, June 12, Mr. Wilbur Bennett, brother of Betty (Mrs. Bruce Gallamore) of Stouffville, passed away in Toronto Western Hospital. Service was conducted at the Giffen-Mack Funeral Home, Danforth Avenue, with interment in Goodwood Cemetery. Surviving also is his wife and mother, two daughters, Suzanne and Linda (Mrs. G. McClelland) and a brother, Norman.

Pastor Derek C. Wicks and several members of Stouffville Kingdom Hall congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, attended the semi-annual Circuit Assembly, June 16 to 18 in the Sir Wilfred Laurier Collegiate Institute, Scarborough. Ten other congregations were also represented.

Paul Benson and Neil Wagg spent the weekend in Montreal and visited Expo.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis and family of Weston, were in Stouffville Sunday to attend the Decoration Day Service in the cemetery.

Graduate Judith McDowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McDowell, has graduated from Toronto Teachers' College and has accepted a position on the public school staff in Markham Village.

Congratulations to Carole Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Morris, Stouffville, R.R.3, who was married to Mr. Richard Charles Novak of Bellwood, Illinois, in a very pretty wedding Saturday afternoon in St. James Presbyterian Church.

Holds Reception

Mr. John Stouffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stouffer of Minden, and his fiancée, Miss Kathy Sherk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sherk, formerly of Stouffville, were honored last week at a reception at the University of Toronto. Following their marriage in July, they will leave to teach in Ghana. They are two of 90 volunteers representing Canadian University Overseas Services. Mr. and Mrs. Stouffer are former Church Street, Stouffville, residents in the home now occupied by Mrs. Ormsby Lehman. Mr. Sherk was a teacher on the staff of Stouffville High School.

Mr. John Garbutt of Windsor has purchased a new home on Manitoba Street, now being completed by Syn-Dot Construction Co. Mr. Garbutt has accepted a teaching position at Uxbridge, beginning in September. Mr. Ross Phelps of Timmins, the new music supervisor at both Orchard Park and Summit-View Schools, has bought a home on Maytree Avenue. Mr. Gilbert McLellan of Brampton, new owner of the Shell station and repair garage near the C.N.R. crossing, has acquired the new residence now under construction by builder, Mervin Turner, on Manitoba Street. Mr. Gordon McNabb, now with the legal firm of Mingay and Shibley, Markham, will move into his new home on Manitoba Street in August. Each of the transactions was negotiated by Mr. Bob Ellis, Loretta Crescent North and Stouffville representative of H. Keith Real Estate Limited.

The annual shareholders meeting of the Stouffville Arena Company Limited will be held at the rink on Thursday evening, July 13, at eight o'clock.

Arnold C. Stewart Funeral service was conducted June 13 for Mr. Arnold C. Stuart, husband of the former Elizabeth Booth, and brother-in-law of Dr. Isobel Booth of Toronto and Stouffville. Mr. Stuart passed away June 9 in Stouffville. Also surviving are three brothers and three sisters. Interment was at Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Toronto.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Badgerow, Musselman's Lake, were all together for Father's Day. Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. John Badgerow of Stouffville, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Badgerow of Markham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Badgerow of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johns, Kelly and Kimberley of Scarborough, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Badgerow, Lynn, Donna and Bob of Stouffville, Mrs. L. Juniper of Toronto, Mrs. Delia Paxton, Musselman's Lake, Miss Lorraine Geruf of Toronto and John Connor of Manitoulin Island.

Engagement Party

A buffet party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moscarello, Glad Park Avenue, June 2, to honor the engagement of their daughter, Marlayne, and Mr. Alan Lamb. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Mask and Mr. and Mrs. George Barnett of Ottawa; Professor M. Moscarello and his wife, Dr. R. Moscarello of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smalley, Aurora, and Miss Linda Cicci, Toronto. A champagne toast to the couple's future happiness was proposed by Marlayne's uncle, Mr. E. T. Mask.

Dr. James Dickson The death occurred in Formosa of Dr. James Dickson, a former minister of St. James Presbyterian Church. The funeral was held on Monday with a special memorial service in Knox Presbyterian Church, Toronto, June 25, at 7 p.m.

Guests who attended for a pot luck supper on Mother's Day with Mr. and Mrs. Gar. Lehman and Bill were Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Reaman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall, Dougie and Susan, Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark and Grant and Mr. and Mrs. Don Gill and Wyatt, all of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Garde of Cooksville, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clarke and Rodger of Richmond Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Neill and Jackie of Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dolen of Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. John Stafford, Leslie, Lori, William and Robert of Wroxeter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Holdgate, Susanne, Donald and David of Aurora, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cox, Brian and Wayne of Agincourt, and Miss Linda Burns and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lehman, Dougie, Shari and Brent of Stouffville. There were 46 present at the gathering.

Elinore Sherk and John Nolan of Stouffville have successfully completed their second year at Carleton University, Ottawa.

Seventy-five students from Stouffville District High School left for Expo on Wednesday. They will return June 28.

Miss Winnie Hutchinson and Mrs. Helen DeWitt were in Toronto for the funeral of Mr. Arnold Stuart, husband of the former Betty Booth. Burial was in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

At the Clarke family reunion held recently at the home of Mrs. J. A. Clarke, a highlight was a piano duet played by Mrs. Bruce Clarke and Mrs. Lorne Clarke, the former Minnie and Mabel Collins, daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Collins of Stouffville. It was sixty years ago when they first combined their talents for such a musical treat.

Congregational Christian Churches Hold Annual Conference

STOUFFVILLE — Delegates from Congregational Christian Churches of Ontario met for the 142nd Annual Conference June 16-18 at the Stouffville Memorial Congregational Church.

Participating ministers were: Rev. C. T. Bass, host to the Conference; Mr. R. M. Vague, Ringwood; Rev. H. H. Kent, Emmanuel Christian Church, Toronto; Rev. A. B. Jones, former pastor at Ringwood, now Alumni Secretary at Toronto Bible College and interim pastor at Keswick.

Rev. Mrs. Doris Way, pastor of Crawford Street Congregational Church, Toronto, conducted the Communion service.

Rev. Gordon Hauser, Latin America Mission was the guest speaker Friday evening.

Rev. Gordon Gale, Canadian Director for World Wide Evangelization Crusade, was speaker at the Sunday morning and evening services. With him was

Mr. Dale Schreiber, former baseball player with the New York Giants.

Special music throughout the Convention was provided by the Crawford Street choir and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Soper.

Rev. Mrs. Doris Day was re-elected Conference President, and Mrs. Lulla Fockler, Ringwood, became president of the newly-named, Congregation of Christian Church Women, formerly known as Women's Missionary Society.

The Conference supports Rev. and Mrs. William Pape, missionaries in Tokyo, Japan, soon to return for furlough.

The annual picnic of the United Missionary Church Sunday School will be held Monday, June 26, at 6:30 p.m. at the Parkside Youth Center.

Mr. Milton Clark, R.R.2 Peterboro, was a weekend visitor with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Rowbottom, and niece, Mrs. Helen DeWitt.

Mr. Wally Koster, well-known radio and TV personality who makes his home in Whitechurch Township, is in Charlottetown, P.E.I. for the summer. The musical group is playing at the Centennial Theatre, part of the new Confederation complex in the centre of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Acton, Brooklin, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith over the weekend. They attended the Cemetery Decoration Service.

Stouffville Boy Scouts will conduct a paper drive, Saturday, June 24.

At the reorganization meeting of the Young Peoples' of the Stouffville United Missionary Church the following officers were elected: President, Nancy Stover; Vice - President, Carole Adams; Secretary, Charlene Brown; Treasurer, Glen Wideman; Program Committee, Evangeline Byer, Sharon Doner and Linda Powell; Pianist, Alice McDowell; assistant, Carolyn Brown; Publicity, Dorothy Sanders, Ken Leonard; Ushers, Robert Brown and Larry Leonard; Song Leader, Donna Yake; Social Committee, Evangeline Adams, Russ Stover and Susan Stouffer.

Ann Barkey, a graduate of Stratford Teacher's College and junior dean at Emmanuel Bible College during 1966-67, has accepted a staff position in Kitchener. She is a graduate of Stouffville District High School.

Centennial Day Awards

STOUFFVILLE—Following the Stouffville Centennial Day Parade at 10 a.m. on Main Street, July 1, all of the activity will take place in the Town Park during the afternoon and again in the evening. The judging for individual awards will be held at 4 p.m. and categories will include (1) The oldest person in the Park at that hour; (2) The youngest person in the Park; (3) The best girl's centennial costume; (4) The best boy's centennial costume; (5) The best man's centennial costume; (6) The best lady's centennial costume; (7) The best beard-judging competition will take place at 4:30 p.m.

Father And Son Banquet

STOUFFVILLE — One hundred boys, fathers and guests attended the Stouffville Scout and Cub banquet June 14 at the Stouffville United Church. Guests included Mr. Jack Pearce, District Commissioner; Mr. Ron Bivens, Assistant District Commissioner; Mr. George Bridges, District Cub Master; Mr. Ray McFadden, Chairman of the District Commission; Rev. Alan Borland, Chaplain; Rev. F. H. Cromey and Rev. Gordon Gooderham.

The Boy Scouts meet each Wednesday evening at the United Church under the leadership of Mr. Don Trotman, Scout Master; Mr. Dave Cuthbertson and Mr. Peter Harris, Assistant Scout Masters. The Senior Scouts were under the leadership of Mr. Bruce Richards, Advisor and Leader. The Rover division of Scouts, including boys 17 years and up, are under the leadership of Mr. L. A. Jones.

The First Stouffville Cub Pack held their meetings each Friday with Miss Dorcen Barton and Mrs. Percy Schell, the leaders.

exists of Leo Egberts, Chairman of Group Committee; Mrs. Gladys Hill, Secretary; Mrs. Rhoda Holden, Treasurer; Mr. Tom Johnston, Finance Chairman; Mr. Gordon Smith, Public Relations Officer; and Mr. Paul Lemman, Committee Member.

Mrs. R. Nicholson of North Bay is visiting with Mrs. Warren Brown and family, Ninth Line, South. Mr. Brown is still confined to Toronto General Hospital following a recent auto accident.

Diane, Susanna and David Fockler entertained their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Fockler of Guildwood Village, Scarborough, to a surprise party, June 14, on the occasion of their 20th wedding anniversary. Dean is a graduate of Stouffville District High School and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Almer Fockler. He is associated with the firm of Colgate Pamolive. In addition to his parents, friends and relatives from Markham, Hamilton, Tillsonburg, Stouffville and Toronto attended.

Engagement

James Gary Wagg and Darlene Straughan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Straughan, Goodwood, Ontario, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Darlene Heather Anne to Mr. James Gary Wagg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wagg, Uxbridge. The wedding to take place in Markham Gospel Chapel, Saturday, August 19 at three o'clock.

ARDMONA FANCY FRUIT
2 47¢

VAN CAMP BEANS and PORK
28 oz. Tin 29¢

HEINZ KETCHUP
20 oz. Bottle 37¢

JELLY DESSERTS
10 89¢

BANANAS
2 lb. 25¢

DOUBLE TAPE DAYS

GOLDEN RIPE TROPICAL FLAVOUR
BANANAS
2 lb. 25¢

Produce of U.S.A. — Canada No. 1 Grade Fresh PEACHES qt. box 59¢

Produce of U.S.A. — Canada No. 1 Grade Florida Size 24 CELERY stalk 29¢

Produce of U.S.A. — Canada No. 1 Grade Vine Ripe TOMATOES lb. 39¢

HEALTH & BEAUTY AID FEATURES:
SPRAY NET 99¢
GROOM AND CLEAN 69¢
TOOTH PASTE 99¢

IGA FEATURE VALUES:
SPAGHETTI SAUCE 32 oz. 43¢
DEJEAN SHRIMPS 59¢
FLAKED TUNA 41¢
CLARK'S SOUPS 3 50¢

IGA TEA BAGS 59¢
READY CUT MACARONI 43¢
MARGARINE 2 57¢

FRESH ONTARIO PORK SALE!
LOIN ROAST O' PORK

RIB PORTION 3 53¢
TENDERLOIN PORTION 3 63¢

QUARTER PORK LOIN 69¢
Centre Cut or Chops 83¢
SLICED SIDE BACON 79¢
McQuaid's Corned Beef 79¢
COD FISH CAKES 55¢

FROZEN FOOD FEATURES:
OLD SOUTH ORANGE JUICE
6 95¢ 3 89¢
CARNATION FRENCH FRIES 53¢

CAKE MIXES 2 89¢
DAVID'S BISCUITS 63¢
CORN CHIPS 25¢
IGA CANDIES 49¢
DOG FOOD 2 31¢
COLGATE SOAP 2 49¢
DOVE LIQUID 93¢

IGA

EXCLUSIVE OFFER FROM IGA
CARLING WORLD GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP
TWO TICKETS AT HALF PRICE!

RATCLIFF IGA FOODLINER
STOUFFVILLE, ONTARIO
OPEN THURS. - FRID. - 9 P.M.

IGA FRESH HAMBURG or WIENER BUNS
2 49¢

ROYAL SUN ORANGE JUICE
22 oz. 29¢

at IGA we really care!