STOUFFVILLE — Fifty members of the Watson family, descendants of the late Wm. Bolton Watson and Jane Little who came to Canada in the late 1840's and settled near Goodwood, met for their family gathering in Stouffville Memorial Park on Sunday afternoon.

They came from Oshawa, Whitby, Newmarket, Markham, Brooklin, Toronto, Goodwood and Stouffville districts. While the children enjoyed a swim in the pool the adults visited and renewed acquaintance. Mr.

and Mrs. Dudley Wilson entertained the young folk with games and contests. Contests for the adults were conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smyth. Mrs. Hazel Bacon was the oldest lady present and Mr. Wilson the oldest gentleman. Mr. and Mrs. A. Dowsell were the oldest married couple. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Wilson and Mrs. Irene Alderson each had the most children present at the picnic. Mr. Dudley Wilson acted as Master of Ceremonies in the absence of the President, Mr. Wm. Watson of Georgetown. The officers were re-elected for 1968 and the picnic will be held in the Stouffville Park, June 16, 1968.

Why Are Car Insurance Rates So High?

Last year, one large U.S. company that took in $191 million in auto insurance premiums for the year, lost $7.8 million on the business.

The experience is a sample of the problems plaguing the insurance industry despite the fact that rates have jumped four hundred per cent in the last twenty years.

How come? A combination of increasing accidents, rising repair costs and exorbitant personal claims with ensuing court battles.

Despite the rise in premium rates, many motorists have had their policies cancelled for higher than average claims or assigned to a higher priced "assigned risk" category.

There is not much we can do about repair costs or court judgments except to try as much as possible to avoid them through more careful driving.

Nine out of ten accidents are caused by authorities as "caused" by carelessness, incompetence or violation of laws. The insurance companies themselves point out that although drivers classified as "high risk" often have to pay double or more for their coverage, the companies lose most money on this business.

Some policies contain clauses that cancel coverage in the event the motorist is proven guilty of drunk driving or other serious offences, thus leaving the motorist personally liable.

In these days of bumper-to-bumper traffic when your foot slipping on the gas pedal can mean an automatic collision with another car, your only defense is ever-greater caution.
