Altona Holds Reunion To Honor Benefactor Arthur Latcham

ALTONA - The second annual Altona reunion and community picnic took on a two-fold meaning Friday night. It brought together former teachers and students who attended the public school, now the Altona Community Centre. It also permitted the executive and residents of the area an opportunity to honor Mr. Arthur Latcham of Stouffville. It was through Mr. Latcham's generosity that the school was purchased and donated debt-free to the community. It is now the centre of activity in the section.

Mr. Fred Lewis presented Mr. Latcham with a personal framed photograph. It was presented in turn to committee chairman, Frank Barkey. To be retained by the Centre. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Latcham, guests included, Toronto Fire Chief, Frank Coakwell and Mrs. Coakwell and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Pearce. Mr. Pearce is a member of the Pickering Township School Area Board.

FORMER TEACHERS
Ten former teachers were in attendance - Mrs. Irene (Harper) Jones; Mrs. Bessie (Robinson) Wideman; Mrs. Edna (Stevenson) Ramey; Mrs. Mary (Graham) Barkey; Mrs. Margaret (Wallace) Couperthwaite; Mrs. Luella (Harper) Lewis; Mrs. Mary Woodcock; Miss Sharon Sturdy and Miss Linda Grill; Mrs. Norman Bunker, a life-long resident of Altona, gave a short history of the area and the names of teachers from 1856 to 1966.

Attending from the farthest distance was Mr. Charles Boothby of Mission City, British Columbia. The oldest former student was Mr. Frank Baker, 89, of Jackson's Point. The youngest pupil who attended at Altona was Gordon Britton, age 7, and the youngest at the picnic was Troy Hanson, 13 weeks. The oldest former Altona teacher was Mrs. Bessie Wideman and the youngest, Miss Linda Grill.

Platform entertainment featured Beverly Bell, Tommy Earl and Terry Lewis; Sharon and Nancy Wideman; Lorne Lewis and the Altona Women's Institute; Kitchen Band; Frank Barkey was Master of Ceremonies.

Vacation Bible School

By MARIAN WELLS

LEMONTVILLE - The Lemonville Vacation Bible School will be held from July 17 to 28 in the church and school. There are classes for children from 4 years old and up.

Mrs. A. Hartwick accompanied her Ballantrac Guide Group for a camp out at Greenwood Park.

Scott Denton of Belleville has been vacationing with his grandparents Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Crouch. Joy Eijnsten has accepted a position as Lifeguard at the Community Pool in Markdale.

Ronnie Collins of Islington is spending the week with his grandfather Mr. Hume MacPherson. Congratulations and best wishes to Miss June Preston who will be married to Mr. Paul Glen Rose of Long Branch at the Lemonville parsonage July 29.

Arizona Visitors

By Mrs. Cliff Burkholder

BETHESDA - Mr. and Mrs. Jack McIntyre and daughter of Phoenix, Arizona, were recent visitors with his mother, Mrs. James McIntyre, and with his sister Mrs. George Williams and family.

Mrs. Harvey Wideman held a birthday party in honor of her mother, Mrs. Albert Yake who was 80 June 27. Eighteen relatives, ladies and children were present.

Douglas Leatherdale returned home Friday from Newmarket Hospital where he underwent an operation on his knee. Mrs. Leatherdale is still in hospital and Miss Fayc Taylor is looking after the house.

More Lights

BUTTONVILLE - Markham Township councillors discussed on Monday the advisability of installing street lights at some of the darker intersections in the townships. All members favoured the suggestion with the exception of councillor Chas. Hoover.

Mr. Hoover's objection arose when it was revealed that the cost of the lights would be borne by the entire township. He said that rural areas would not get much attention and the cost would be out of proportion.

He said the provincial and federal governments should show some inclination to relieve the property owner of some tax before loading on any more.
